Horoscopes:

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

The stars are telling you it's time to clean up your act when it comes to personal conduct -- and no excuses will be accepted. Accept the tough love. The powers that be are whipping you

Horoscopes

into shape for your own benefit.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

If you put the wheels in motion, events will go as you planned. In other words, don't wait for someone else to make the first move. The results won't be instantaneous, however, so try to be patient.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

You're the host who can boast the most. Next to you, others are toast. You bring just the right touch of silliness to solemn proceedings. No one holds a candle to your ability to lighten up an event, or throw a fiesta.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

You're aces at getting the right people in touch with each other, but you might need backup when it comes to getting the logistics under way. Partner with someone who excels at tying up loose ends.

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

This situation should come labeled with a big 'Handle with Care' sticker. Unfortunately, things are rarely that obvious. It's up to you and your amazing sensitivity to sniff them out and defuse things.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

You have energy to spare, so make sure you're out there meeting and greeting everyone who's available. New contacts open up great options at work and at play. Keep an eye peeled for fresh romantic opportunities.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

The big picture is about to come into sharp focus. Once it does, you won't need to mince words or let anyone box you in. Your path has become apparent. You know what you need. So go out and get it!

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

Healthy competition is a great thing when it really makes you go beyond your preconceived limits. Just make sure those impulses are being channeled in a healthy way. You don't want to let it get out of hand.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Try seeing this dilemma from the point of view of the other party. Is it possible that the whole thing was a genuine misunderstanding and not a deliberate slight? If so, it's time to forgive and forget.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Inspiration pops up when you least expect it. Make a point of seeking out new places and people. Follow your instincts regarding a new pal and spend as much time together as you can. You're going to have so much fun!

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

It's time to clear the air. Once your feelings are out in the open, you can stop holding your breath and get on with the business of living your life. Your loved ones will be grateful you had the courage to speak.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

Is it time to take your recent change in status public? Only you can decide if it's the right moment or not. Just remember: You're the one in the driver's seat. Rev it up or hit the brakes. It's your move.

Gus

in Knoxville this past weekend. I spotted an old rusty horse-shoe deposited right in the middle of the road.

I stop the SUV and carefully inspect the horseshoe, debating if this is a practical joke or just an ordinary shoe. I grabbed it uneventfully and went back to running my errands.

So is it lucky or not, and do I have to hang it over a door? I guess I was lucky not to hit it and even luckier that I didn't hit the shoes when they were a set and still attached to the horse.

So speaking about sets, would the other three shoes make the first shoe luckier? I bet if one is lucky then four ought to be a heaping lot better.

I think I am going to put this special shoe on our boat, but then again, our luck, the Game Warden would show up about the time we're getting done chumming and he wants to know what we've done with the other three shoes. -Gus 60 miles and hour in a 35 zone, the officer activated his blue lights, which the driver ignored and sped on, evading the deputy.

Upon stopping in a residential driveway on Foster Drive, the driver exited the vehicle. While being held at gunpoint, the driver refused to obey verbal commands and turned away from Deputy Stanley.

After holstering his gun, the deputy reported he had to take the driver to the ground. Still not obeying commands to put his hands behind his back, the deputy physically placed Justin O'Neal Rountree's hands behind his back and placed him under arrest.

It was reported that Rountree had a strong alcoholic beverage smell about his person and refused all sobriety tests along with implied consent.

It was discovered through NCIC that Rountree's driver's license had been suspended for 2 prior DUI convictions.

Justin O'Neal Rountree, 29, Foster Drive, Lenoir City was charged with DUI 3rd, driving on revoked, felony evading arrest, resisting arrest, and was cited for failure to comply with implied consent law.

Pantoja-Camacho

Munro was dispatched to Sunnyside Road in reference to a hit and run that had happened earlier. When Deputy Munro made it to the scene he was told by several witnesses that a grey car with a green front bumper hit another vehicle.

Not long after arriving the deputy reported that the grey car came around the curve to where the hit and run had earlier occurred and was fingered by witnesses that that was the car.

The men in the car were identified as Juan Antonio Pantoja-Camacho, 23, Reed Springs Road, Sweetwater and Jose Lopez, 19, also of Reed Springs Road, and an unnamed 15 year old who had smelled of an alcoholic beverage.

Lopez was charged with underage consumption, while Pantoja-Camacho was charged with DUI 1st, driving without a license, leaving the scene of an accident, and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

the convention, the students found brand new targets, shooting lanes, a presentation stage, trophies, medals, prize bows, and T-shirts commemorating this historic event in which they were about to compete.

Zach McNabb, from Meigs Middle School, wins best overall in first Archery in the Schools state competition in Nashville.

"This event that has drawn 160 students from across the state to the first Tennessee state competition for the Archery In The Schools program," stated Don Crawford, Assistant Chief of Information and Education of the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency. "We're really proud of the thirteen schools who were represented out of the thirty-four across the state who participate in the program. We're already looking forward to planning for next year. This event will only get bigger and better."

"Archery In The Schools got its start in Kentucky and has enjoyed tremendous success. Today, over 500 elementary, middle, and high schools participate in the program in that state. Featuring Olympic style target archery, it's a sport that allows all students to compete on a level field," continued Crawford. "Unlike other sports, height and muscle strength are definitely not top priority to be competitive. Some of the smallest competitors have been highly successful."

The TWRA believes that as the program is implemented in more schools, it will enjoy the same explosive success as it has in Kentucky. For information about getting your school involved in the Archery In The Schools program, contact Don Crawford at 615-781-6538, or by email at don.crawford@state.tn.us.

Tennessee's Wild Side, the TWRA sponsored TV program will feature a story on the competition in a segment set to air on March 17, on public TV across the State.

Check

According to records, Danny Thompson, a representative for Christmas Lumber

Company, Knoxville, went to the Loudon County Sheriff's Department where he spoke with Detective Chris White, LCSD CID, and advised the company had taken a check from a man he identified as Timothy Bowerman in the amount of $3069.11 and then learned the check had been written on a closed account.

Thompson reported the check was received from Bowerman on July 12, 2006 for some materials that were delivered to a job site located at 521 River Chase and on December 26, 2006 the company sent Bowerman a certified letter requesting payment on the bad check, but has received no response.
