Local escapes serious injury after falling asleep at wheel

Mama said there'd be days like this: workers from Malone's Wrecker Service faced a challenge Tuesday when they had to retrieve this truck from about 30' down an embankment. The driver was not seriously injured. (see Wreck pg. 8)

Friday the 13th

A Friday occurring on the 13th day of any month is considered to be a day of bad luck in English, German and Portuguese-speaking cultures around the globe. Similar superstitions exist in some other traditions. In Greece and Spain, for example, Tuesday the 13th takes the same role. The fear of Friday the 13th is called paraskavedekatriaphobia a word that is derived from the concatenation of Greek words meaning Friday, thirteen, and phobia respectively; alternate spellings include paraskevidekatriaphobia or paraskevidekatriaphobia) or friggatriskaidekaphobia, and is a specialized form (see Friday th 13th pg. 9)

Verse of the day

Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things he hath done for you.

We hope you enjoy your Bingo trip, Jan at A.J.'s!

Horoscopes: Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

One of the reasons you're on a roll at work is that (see Horoscopes pg. 2)

Horoscopes

you can keep up the momentum just when the rest of your team's spirits are flagging. And that's not even taking into account how much you love coming up with new ideas.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

A special person's behind-the-scenes support is just what it takes to propel you into your rightful spot in the public eye. Once you take this next step, you'll see how many other possibilities could open up for you.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

You can't move on until you get a few roadblocks out of the way. These obstacles aren't tangible, but mental. So while they might be harder to remove, once you do, you can go anywhere your heart desires.

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

Your normally go-it-alone self is hankering for some company, and your friends couldn't be more delighted. It's been too long since they've seen you. Go ahead and get your crowd together. The more, the merrier.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

Patience isn't necessarily your strong suit, but you'd be well advised to exercise as much of it as possible, especially when it comes to a blocked romantic situation. Forcing a solution could make things worse.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

New ideas put the spring back in your step. This inspiration also helps lift an old burden off your shoulders. The results of your experiment are so stellar you should consider trying this unique approach.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

Are you wrestling with a difficult situation? Before the tension leaks over into other areas of your life, be open to the possibility that someone else might have a lot of input into this issue. Ask for advice.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Whether you realize it or not, you just passed a major milestone. Are you surprised that it was much easier than you thought? Your long-cherished goal is clearly in sight thanks to all of these recent experiences.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

An intellectual skirmish with a surprising partner gives you new a new appreciation for a particular person. Keep this spirit of discovery alive. Learn to regularly embrace what's different about each other.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

Keep a flexible attitude no matter how much you want to tell a certain person that their idea is nuttier than a can of Planter's. If you really listen, you might just see the value in this off-the-wall concept.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

It's tempting to cross a line even (especially) when it's been expressly forbidden, but take another look at your actions. Yes, sometimes rules need to be broken. Other times, it's just a way to act out. Which is it now?

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

The universe sends unexpected inspiration your way. An off-the-cuff comment from a casual friend could send a flash of lightning right to your heart. Suddenly, an old puzzle makes perfect sense.

Letters to the Editor

To those who stole from my husband's grave:

Editor: Daily Edition:

This is an open letter to the person or people who stole the flower vase off my husband's grave. I don't think you know the pain you have caused my family and myself. Raymond went to heaven 14 1/2 years ago and his vase has been stolen twice and has broken our hearts twice. Not to mention the cost to replace it.

I live on social security. After paying my bills I have nothing left. I have no money to replace the vases you've stolen, but I have to do it, for giving him flowers is all I can do for him now. My gift to him is impossible without a vase to keep them. I am glad he doesn't know about all of this.

Do you really need money this bad, or do you simply want easy money without working?

I know in my heart the Lord will make a way to replace the vase, but I want you to self-examine before doing this again.

You have stolen from the dead, and for the living you have caused hardship and pain for so many families.

There is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed and nothing concealed that will not be known or brought out into the open. Consider your works carefully. What will God see when you stand before Him?

Mary Sherrill, Loudon

Police Beat

James Robert Thaxton, 41, of Ferry St., Loudon was charged with public intoxication.

Wreck

On Tuesday Neal King of Loudon County was traveling on Hwy. 70 near Wampler's Farm when he apparently dozed off at the wheel. In doing so, King's vehicle entered a ditch on the right side of the highway.

According to Trooper S.F. "Hawk" Holcomb III, THP when Mr. King awoke he tried to bring his vehicle back onto the roadway and in doing so lost control. Upon losing control the vehicle struck the guardrail at an approximately 60 degree angle sending the vehicle over the guardrail striking a telephone pole and down an approximately 30 feet ravine. Mr. King escaped serious injury but was transported to Ft. Sanders Medical Center by Rural Metro EMS where he was treated and released. No charges have been filed against Mr. King as the incident was ruled an accident.

Friday the 13th

of triskaidekaphobia, a phobia (fear) of the number thirteen.

Before the 19th century, though the number 13 was considered unlucky, and Friday was considered unlucky, there was no link between them. The first documented mention of a "Friday the 13th" is generally listed as occurring in the early 1900s.

However, documentation aside, many popular stories exist about the origin of the concept:

*The Last Supper, with stories that Judas was the thirteenth guest, and that the Crucifixion of Jesus occurred Friday.

*That the biblical Eve offered the fruit to Adam on a Friday, and that the slaying of Abel happened on a Friday (though the Bible does not identify the days of the week when these events occurred).

*That it started on Friday, October 13, 1307, the date that many Knights Templar were simultaneously arrested in France, by agents of King Philip IV.

However, historically, there is no true date that the Friday the 13th superstition can be linked to.

The superstition affects people and cultures in various ways:

It's been estimated that [U.S.] $800 or $900 million is lost in business on this day because people will not fly or do business they would normally do.

Some people are so paralyzed by fear that they are simply unable to get out of bed when Friday the 13th rolls around. The Stress Management Center and Phobia Institute estimates that more than 17 million people are affected by a fear of this day. Despite that, representatives for both Delta and Continental Airlines say that their airlines don't suffer from any noticeable drop in travel on those Fridays.

A British Medical Journal study has shown that there is a significant increase in traffic related accidents on Friday the 13ths.

The date is well-known in the motorcycle (biker) community: Since 1981, motorcycle enthusiasts and vendors gather every Friday the 13th in Port Dover, Ontario, Canada. This tradition started on November 13, 1981 by Chris Simons as a gathering of approximately 25 friends. The event has grown substantially, with an estimated 100,000 people attending in August 2004, as well as music bands, vendors, a bike show, etc.

In the Spanish-speaking world, it is Tuesday the 13th the day that supposedly brings bad luck; a proverb runs En martes, ni te cases ni te embarques, ni de tu familia te apartes. (on Tuesday, neither get married nor start a journey, or separate yourself from your family).
