Executive Meadows Showcases with open House this weekend

Jonathan gets some help from Eddie Simpson (left) and it paid off. After the shot from the sandtrap (right) the ball landed on the green. (see Meadows pg. 8)

What's the deal! Get a license!

For some reason numerous individuals think there's no need for a driver license to drive. Several individuals, mostly Hispanic, have been charged with no license among other charges. For those who have possessed a license and lost them are charged with 2nd, 3rd and so on but several of those Wanna sip occifer?

Deputy Marty Stanley apprehended a North Carolina woman after he was called to Hwy 321 to assist Deputy Steve Helm. When the deputy asked the female driver to get out she took a sip of her cold beer and then got out. (see Resists pg. 6)

Man nabbed after trying to pass funny money

Deputy Steve Helm, LCSD was dispatched to the TA Truck Stop on Watt Road to a complaint of counterfeit money. The clerk advised an employee, Dustin Shirk, (see Money pg. 7)

Horoscopes

start by sharing your brilliant new method. Sure, it's a little outrageous, but the more people see of it, the more they'll realize that it makes perfect sense. You're a trail-blazer.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

Something that's right up your alley could be disguised as an activity you vehemently refused to do. Has it ever occurred to you that you're having a strong reaction because you know this could change your life?

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

A diva such as you doesn't need to be beddled with all the details. Oh, wait, that's not you -- or is it? The stars say it's time to access your inner diva so you get the star treatment you deserve. Just do it with a smile.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

Talking about your feelings comes easily to you right now. This helps when dealing with a prickly type who's prone to misinterpreting your actions. Things get deeper and more honest between the two of you now.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sept 23)

Practice makes perfect. Not only that, but it lends a final touch of grown-up polish to an enterprise that's very dear to your heart. When you make your pitch, you want your audience to appreciate its meaning -- and they will.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

Efforts to get along with people from all walks of life may payoff handsomely when it comes to romance right now. Take a genuine interest in the people who cross your path and be open to what comes up.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Re-evaluate goals and look at long-term commitments with a judicious eye. The stars want you to think about the life you imagined and the life you're living. Do you need to revamp anything?

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Are you struggling with long-term decisions? The problem might have to do with timing and your recent calculations about deadlines. Why not let yourself be more creative when it comes to the big picture?

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

Compromising your character for material gains just isn't worth it in the long run, no matter how tempting the rewards may look on the surface. Stick to the path that you know is best. Uphold your integrity.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

You're unstoppable at your chosen task. This is the gift of your dynamic personality and charm. Once you take center stage, work matters will sort themselves out and suitors will toss themselves at your feet.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

How dare this person! Why would they think you'd do something like that? Wait just one minute before you respond negatively. If you examine your wishes, you'll see secretly you've been dying to do the unthinkable.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

You have some old obligations to fulfill, and you've been procrastinating for too long. It's time to reignite your creativity. Take a dance class, attend a concert -- do whatever it takes to get your imagination flowing.

Resists

At first she told the officer to take her to jail and then decided to change her mind and decline to participate and resisted the officer. She was stopped after driving the wrong way on Hwy 321 while her passenger slept.

According to the report, Deputy Marty

Stanley, LCSD was dispatched to the Exxon on Hwy 321 to assist Deputy Steve Helm.

Upon arrival the officer made contact with Helm who reported he was getting off I-75 and noticed a red van traveling the wrong way on Hwy 321 with a female driver and male passenger with the male passenger asleep.

Upon making contact with the vehicle the driver was parked in the parking lot with the keys in the ignition. The driver was identified as Karen Barus Seagle. She was found to have a suspended license and the officer asked her to step out of the vehicle. An open container of beer was in the cup holder and while asking Ms. Seagle to step out she took a drink from the beer in the cup holder and then stepped out of the vehicle.

Seagle was unsteady on her feet and agreed to perform sobriety tests and stated she was drunk so just take her to jail.

The officer told

Seagle she was under arrest and she started to walk away from the officer. The officer then grabbed her by the arm and she jerked away from the officer again and was then placed on the ground and put into handcuffs and transported to the Loudon County Jail by Deputy Stanley.

Karen Barus Seagle, 48, of Poppy Acres Lane, East Flat Rock NC, was charged with DUI, driving on suspended, resisting arrest and felony reckless endangerment. Deputy Marty Stanley, LCSD made the arrest.

Meadows

The Executive course and the Meadows 9 will play host this Friday, Saturday, and Sunday from open to close to an inaugural open house that will showcase the new par 36 Meadows course. The new course has been constructed in the residential area next to the Executive par 3 course and is one of the more challenging layouts we have experienced. From rolling hills to water hazards, treacherous tee shots and tight greens, the course has it all. It will challenge the golfer in any age group or skill level.

With greens fees reasonably priced at $25 with cart (Seniors $22.00 Mon-Fri) the course promises to be one of the jewels of the Loudon golfing community. The Executive course has also been honored as Golf News', BEST, 5 years running call (865) 988-TEE1 (8331).

With construction of the course starting more than 2 and 1/2 years ago it's finally time to showcase the new facility in all of it's splendor. Eddie Simpson was nice enough to show us around the new 2,900 yd layout and explain some of the architectural elements of the course designed and owned by Eddie along with his partner Ed Boling. The fairways were constructed to fit the lay of the hilly terrain and the greens were designed to be tough but fair. The multiple tee boxes on every hole ensures that all age levels will be competitive. In fact, Executive Meadows is one of the few courses that have Junior tees at every hole for the young golfers making it a complete experience at every level.

Ed and Eddie and well known in Loudon County and are also the owners of Bimbo's Fireworks on Hwy 321. Ed was a highly successful coach at Karns, when Dan attended, and Bearden, when Mike attended and retired as the athletic director of Bearden. Now, Ed and his son, Greg host coaching clinics with the Knoxville

Christian Basketball Camp.

Eddie is a Lenoir City Councilman and resides atop the beautiful Executive Meadows Golf Course. Eddie married Ed's sister, Carrie and both enjoy golf with their grandson, Blaine Ruth, who is an ancestor of the legendary Babe Ruth and already loves hitting it off the tees at age 4.

Get out the clubs, load up the kids and head to Executive

Meadows for a day a fun and relaxation at a beautiful course.

U.S. CELLULAR ROX KNOX FREE MUSIC FESTIVAL SOLD OUT

--Registration ends, limited wristbands are still available for fans with vouchers--

You only turn 21 once: The U.S. Cellular Rox Knox free music festival is set to be one of the biggest outdoor events at World's Fair Park in quite a while. Festival organizers have closed online registration for the April 28 event.

"Response has been excellent, and we're excited that thousands of people will be celebrating our 21st birthday with us," said Tom Catani, regional vice president of U.S. Cellular's East Operations.

With online registration closed, there are still a few ways to get free wristbands for admission to the festival, but only for fans who have already printed out a voucher from the web site. Vouchers can be redeemed for wristbands at the U.S. Cellular store at 8401 Kingston Pike from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. for as long as supplies last. Wristbands will also be available at select Journal Broadcasting radio remotes. A list of times and locations for the remotes can be found at www.uscellularroxknox.com. Supplies are limited at the remotes as well, and vouchers are still required.

Gates open at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday but festival attendees are advised to come early because wristbands do not guarantee admission to the festival at the time you arrive. Safety regulations at World's Fair Park allow a limited number of people inside the venue at once. If the park is at capacity, admission may be delayed or denied.

"Because of the crowd we're expecting on Saturday, safety of the festival attendees is a top priority for U.S. Cellular," said Catani.

The all-day celebration will feature popular rock band Lifehouse and classic rockers Joan Jett and the Blackhearts, along with Knoxville's own Jag Star. Food, beverage and beer vendors will be stationed in the park. The celebration will kick off with a DJ Spin-Off music contest at 3:00 p.m. There will also be interactive games and prizes throughout the event.

U.S. Cellular is the nation's sixth-largest wireless service carrier, serving 5.8 million customers in 26 states. The Chicago-based company operates on a customer satisfaction strategy, meeting customer needs by providing a comprehensive range of wireless products and services, superior customer support and a high-quality network.

For up-to-date information about U.S. Cellular Rox Knox music festival, tune to Journal Broadcast Group radio stations 93.1 The Point, Star 102.1 and Hot 104.5 or visit www.uscellularroxknox.com.
