Horoscopes

your chest, and tight pants or credit card regret won't help. Try talking instead.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

Making decisions can be troublesome, especially later in the day. If you have to weigh in on a matter, it's best to tackle it in the morning when you're feeling more decisive. Later in the day, bask in your hard work.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

Plans for a special event will be finalized, and you're guaranteed an obstacle-free (and potentially romantic) time. An exciting moment of intrigue will take things up a level and heighten the sense of possibility.

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

You feel like you have to get every aspect of your life settled right now. Everyone else thinks your crazy talk can be put off for a while. It might be time to retire to your separate corners for the moment.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

You're bubbling with enthusiasm, and it's affecting everyone around you. People want to get on board wherever you are, and that means there's a ton of fun in store for all of you right now. Get out there and start moving!

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

Small talk sometimes makes the world go 'round. A casual conversation at work or at a dinner party can spark something much greater than the sum of its parts. Go ahead and talk to multiple people about many things.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

Introduce some unexpected options into a situation. The stars say to get out there and try something wild and unconventional. Learning new things keeps the heart and soul flexible, ready and eager.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

When you're presented with a plethora of opportunities, you instinctively want to grab every one. You may not have time to explore all the options, though. Instead, focus on one or two and nurture them fully.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Relationship issues are first on your agenda, especially if an unresolved problem from your past pokes its head out in the open. It's an opportunity moment to deal with this issue once and for all.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

It's a great time to start laying down a foundation for a bigger, brighter future. You, more than most, know that the details matter. Keep up your efforts -- very good news will soon arrive.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

The stars encourage you to go out and gather more material for your mind. Pick up interesting magazines and books or go see an artsy-fartsy movie. Heck, why not do all of them, and make it a regular thing?

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

You feel as if it's time to emerge from your shell. Your instincts are excellent. You've really sorted some things out, and now it's time to celebrate. Take it nice and easy, and you'll enjoy yourself all the more.

Grove

a domestic call at a Lenoir City location.

Wally Dean Grove, 41, of Kinzallow Drive, Knoxville, was charged with possession of a firearm with the intent to go armed.

According to the reported officers received a call to the back parking lot of Roane State in reference to a domestic. Upon arrival officers were talking to a female and observed a loaded Ruger 45 caliber handgun stuck down between the drivers seat and console.

Grove stated he was the driver and it was his gun. Officer Eddie Range, LCPD made the arrest.

of Mizer an object was felt in his groin area. The item was removed and discovered to be a pill bottle containing 2 large white rocks believed to be crack cocaine. Also found on his person was metal pipe used to smoke cocaine base.

Lance Mark Mizer, 18, of Manor View Drive, Knoxville, was charged with poss. of sch. II cocaine base and poss. of drug paraphernalia. Sgt. Billy Hall, LCSD made the arrest.

Cuen

DUI and was found to be under the influence of alcohol. He reportedly told police he'd not had too much to drink, but performed poorly on SFST and refused a BAC.

Walter Michael Cuen, 44, of Lonas Road, Knoxville, was charged with DUI and viol. of implied consent.

According to the report, Deputy Jake Keener, LCSD was dispatched to a call of a possible drunk driver on Hwy. 70. The officer spotted the blue truck just after midnight and observed the vehicle crossing the center of the roadway.

The officer stopped the vehicle and approached. Upon speaking to the driver, Mr. Cuen, he fumbled with his wallet when asked for his license and continued to shuffle papers when asked for registration.

The officer asked Cuen how much he'd had to drink and Cuen stated "not too much". Cuen performed poorly on sobriety tests and was a danger to himself and others due to his degree of intoxication.

Cuen refused a BAC test. Deputy Jake Keener, LCSD made the arrest.

Zone

"TDOT's Get in the Zone program is an excellent way to teach teens valuable lessons that could save their lives and the lives of the men and women working in these areas."

Motor vehicle crashes are the leading cause of death for American teenagers. In 2004, approximately 245 16 and 17 year old drivers were involved in work zone crashes in Tennessee.

"Work zones are considered one of the most hazardous places for workers, but they can be even more dangerous for drivers – particularly young, inexperienced ones," said TDOT Commissioner Gerald Nicely. "Our Get in the Zone program sends a powerful message about just how dangerous work zones can be and teaches teen drivers the signs they need to know to identify a work zone and tips to help them drive safely through these areas."

Get in the Zone is a high-tech, interactive presentation provided to Tennessee high schools at no cost. The goal of Get in the Zone is to reduce the chances of young drivers being involved in dangerous work zone accidents. The program has already been viewed by more than a thousand students across the state.

"Youth highway safety is an important target area for reducing the number of lives lost on our nation's highways," added Department of Safety Commissioner David Mitchell. "I'm pleased we could partner with TDOT on this important program."

The Get in the Zone program includes:

- *One day, approximately 90 minutes, of in-school training by TDOT/partner instructors, class/assembly style, including:

- Role/playing remote control "driving course" for demonstration*

- A dramatic and emotional eight-minute safety video produced specific to Tennessee with teens in mind and available to the school for further use*

- A moving story about a family living with the loss of their teenage son who died while driving in a TN work zone*

- Participation prize for students*

- * Teacher curriculum guide for follow-up use in classroom*

- * Realistic Work Zone driving CD Rom "game" with lessons provided to teachers for classroom use*

- * Web page with key links, downloadable information for teachers, parents and teens*

"When it comes to driving in work zones, there's no such thing as beginner's luck," said Kendell Poole, Director of the Governor's Highway Safety Office. "This program is designed to engage students while providing them with the tools they need to travel safely through work zones. Through efforts like this, we can make our roadways safer for everyone."

TDOT is proud to offer this program with the support of several agencies, including the Governor's Highway Safety Office, the 3M Traffic Safety Systems Division, the Tennessee Road Builders Association, Lamar Advertising and the Tennessee District Attorneys General Conference.

"The Tennessee District Attorneys General are delighted that new and innovative efforts to protect workers and the driving public in construction zones are underway," added Wally Kirby, Executive Director of the Tennessee District Attorneys General Conference. "Every life saved and injury prevented helps our state thrive."

For more information on Get in the Zone, visit <http://www.tn.gov/tdot/wzsafety/>.

Charged

According to the report, while working an accident on Parris Drive and Beals Chapel Road the officer heard a vehicle pull out and accelerate in such a manner as to squeal the tires. The officer observed the vehicle and stopped it at the scene.

The driver, Mr. Nip-sky was found to have a suspended license. Deputy Chris Bowen, LCSD made the arrest.

Employee

City, was charged with theft under $500 and simple poss. of schedule VI.

According to the report, Key was employed at Bimbo's on Hwy. 321 in Lenoir City. While employed there she took $100 from the cash register without getting permission to do so.

The actions are on video.

After locating Key and placing her under arrest she had a small bag of a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana in her possession.

Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD made the arrest.
