Local Rabies Report 2007

Tennessee Public Health officials and Loudon County Veterinarians announce that Saturday, May 5, is set for Rabies Clinics.

Dr. Patrick Walker with the Loudon County Veterinary Academy and Larry Manis and Carmen Pardue, Environmental Specialists of the Loudon County Health Department, reported that in Tennessee the skunk is the chief vector accounting for 89 of 121 confirmed cases in the year 2006. Other species confirmed were 19 bats, 4 foxes, 3 cats, 3

About May Day

May Day is May 1, and refers to any of several holidays celebrated on this day. May 1 was a traditional summer holiday in many pre-Christian European pagan cultures, and many elements of these holidays are still celebrated on May 1 today, such as the Maypole. While February 1 was the first day of Spring, May 1 was the first day of summer: hence, the summer

Determined deputy nabs man after chase

Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSD was driving down Blue Springs Road and noticed a white vehicle come off a road and run the stop sign. On trying to catch up to the vehicle it was traveling at a high rate of speed and going through curves on the wrong side of the road. When the deputy reached the intersection at Oakland Road the vehicle ran

Horoscopes: Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

If it's one thing you know how to do, it's stand your ground. Be honest, though: Is there a tiny possibility that this position is so important to you because of a past, unaired resentment? It's time to talk about it.

(see Horoscopes pg. 2)

Horoscopes

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

You get an opportunity to express yourself in an important arena. Many people fear speaking in public, but the thought of giving a speech actually revs your engines right now. Smile pretty for the cameras!

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

It's time to face reality. Someone's been taking advantage of you. Deal with it or you'll be giving them tacit permission to continue. This behavior is immature, but you need to stand up for yourself.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

Your impulses tell you to do one thing, but the more calculating side of you says there's a smarter, smoother route. Get quiet and listen to your guiding voice. There's a middle way.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

Success is just the flip side of failure. Finding out what doesn't work is a key step to lasting success. Remind yourself that achievement is a lifelong process, not a final destination.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

Exercising restraint

wins you a healthy measure of self-respect, and incidentally, the loyalty and admiration of your peers. Now that you know what you're capable of, your confidence will literally soar.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

When you concentrate on fulfilling your purpose in life, you help out other people in the process. Focus on learning to take care of yourself so you don't end up resenting others for not meeting those needs.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

You're an independent type, but let a partnership take center stage right now. Although you didn't think this relationship was going anywhere, you're finding that it has a mind of its own. Pay attention to your feelings for this person.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

Are you getting the wrong answers because you've been inadvertently sending the wrong message? Think about what you really want. Then rephrase the question so you get a reply that addresses your concerns.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

Someone else needs your help when it comes to smoothing over a little tear in the social fabric. Fortunately, your sense of humor and easy way with people are just the needle and thread to mend the hole.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

When you're on your guard, you excel at keeping secrets. If a friend confides in you, stay on your toes -- you know what they say about loose lips. If you must tell someone, write it in your diary or confide in a pet.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

Are you so caught up in the rat race that you're neglecting your love life? You say you're busy, but are you just being defensive? It's okay if you're not ready to get back in the game, but be honest and say so.

Report

raccoons, 2 dogs, 1 cow.

There have already been 28 confirmed rabies cases this year involving 24 skunks, 2 bats, 1 dog and 1 raccoon.

The mild winters

we have experienced aids in the prevalence of our wild species. With bats and skunks ever-present and the spread of raccoon rabies into Tennessee, health officials are encouraging pet owners to make sure their pets are vacinated.

Tennessee regulations require cats and dogs to be current on rabies vaccination. These pets have the greatest opportunity to come in contact with wildlife such as skunks, bats and raccoons, which are the most likely vectors at the present time.

The Tennessee Department of Health urges people to: vaccinate your dogs, cats, selected livestock; limit rabies exposure by avoiding contact with unknown animals; remove or secure garbage or pet food kept outdoors that attracts wild or stray animals and discourage keeping wild animals as pets.

The Loudon County Rabies Clinic will be held on Saturday, May 5, with the vaccination fee of $10 per pet. This year some clinic locations will be scheduled of the morning and others in the afternoon. Refer to the time schedule for your particular location.

9:30 a.m. - Glendale Community Center, Martel Utility District at 6875 Lakeview Road, New Eaton School and Lenoir City parking lot.

10:15 a.m. - Highland Park School.

1:00 p.m. - Philadelphia Town Square, Steekee School and Loudon High School.

May Day

solstice on June 25 (now the 22nd) was "midsummer." May Day" also refers to various socialist and labor movement celebrations conducted on May 1, unrelated to the traditional celebrations to commemorate the Haymarket Riot of 1886 and the international socialist movement generally. The latter event is an important holiday in Communist countries and Waldorf Schools.

In America, May Day is commonly celebrated as a commemoration of the Haymarket Riot of 1886 in Chicago, Illinois, which occurred on May 4, but was the culmination of labor unrest which began on May 1. The date consequently became established as an anarchist and socialist holiday during the 20th century, and in these circles it is often known as International Workers' Day or Labour Day. In this form, May Day has become an international celebration of the social and economic achievements of the working class and labor movement.

Handy Tips

To remove crayon stains from glass, porcelain, Formica, metal, plastic, no-wax vinyl floors, painted walls, painted wood, scrubbable wallpaper, tile, chalkboard and marble: spray surface to be cleaned with WD-40 and wipe with a soft cloth. If a residue remains add liquid dish washing detergent into water, wash the surface with a sponge, working in a circular motion and rinse. Repeat as needed.

Safety Commissioner Dave Mitchell says, "Customer service is our top priority at Driver License Service Centers across the state. And remember, you don't have to get your license in the county where you live. Tennesseans can obtain or renew licenses in any county where a service center is located."

Driver License Director Wanda Moore says, "There are more ways to get driver license services than coming to a station. The Driver Services Centers are rearranging their hours to make services more accessible to more people. Hours will change at many stations. We encourage our customers to go as early in the day to our stations as possible. This will help ensure a shorter wait time."

Many people can renew their licenses or get duplicates for lost licenses online. People who need to take road tests can make appointments for those tests online too, and this ensures you that an examiner will be ready to give that test at a specific time. The department's Online Services Home page is located at: <http://state.tn.us/safety/online-services.htm>.

the stop sign and the deputy activated his lights and siren.

The driver started turning on Brannon Road and accelerated throwing dirt and gravel over the windshield and front of the officer's patrol car and then accelerated away. On coming to the first sharp curve the driver lost control and went off through a fence and field. The driver jumped out of the vehicle and started to run on foot then got back in the vehicle and with flat tires took off through the field.

The deputy followed the vehicle back through the field where it finally came to a stop. The driver then jumped back out of the vehicle and started running towards the woods. The deputy stopped at the edge of the woods and watched as the white male in camouflage pants and gray t-shirt run through the woods. After a few minutes the deputy heard a male yell he was coming out and appeared back in view. The deputy took the subject into custody and identified him as Tobey Truman Yates. On checking his license he was found to have 6 prior driving on suspended convictions.

Tobey Truman Yates, 29, of Ponder Gap Road, Ten Mile, was charged with reckless driving, felony fleeing, and driving on suspended 7th offense and vandalism. Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSD made the arrest.

Cat door.

When Mr. Collier confronted the neighbors they stated the kitten ran out when they opened the door. Mr. Collier then called to report a theft and trespassing. The loss was valued at $100 and included the kittens litter box and blanket which is an awful lot for a kitten to carry alone. Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSD filed the report. Investigator Chris White, LCSD CID is handling the investigation.

Handy Tips

To rid bats from the attic: place 6 boxes of mothballs in the area where the bats are residing. The mothballs must contain the chemical naphthalene. The bats dislike loud music and bright lights too. Do not do this between Aug-Sept because they are spawning. They hibernate after that time and again you are not supposed to use the mothballs.
