Shooting

another tried to keep her calm.

Rural Metro responded to the scene and transported Marsh to UT Medical Center for treatment.

The officer reported there were four people involved in the incident and it appeared all had been drinking.

Shawn Miller, Old Kingston Road, reported he had been sitting in the passenger seat of a vehicle parked behind the house at the location when a woman he identified as Sheila Richardson came out the back door with a gun and pointed it towards him.

Clayton Jarred, also of Holder Hollow Road, Kingston, advised Richardson is his mother and when she came out the back door with the gun he and Marsh attempted to get it away from her. During the scuffle, the gun discharged and struck Marsh in the right hand.

Detective Charles Cosner, LCSD, responded to process the scene.

The Daily Edition will bring you more information in tomorrow's Edition.
