Patient records stolen in vehicle theft

A local woman called police Tuesday when she discovered someone stole her vehicle, which contained patient records with personal information in them.

According to reports, Billie Sue Kivett, Nichols Road, told Deputy Dewayne Drinnen, LCSD, she went out to her 2005 Kia Sportage and discovered it missing. She didn't remember if she locked it, but said she kept a spare set of keys inside the vehicle.

(see Records pg. 7)

Stop! Or Bud will shoot?

Officer Dennis Guider, LCPD was dispatched to Rogers Circle, Lenoir City on someone shooting a gun outside. Upon arrival the officer saw a man sitting on the ground behind his residence hiding behind a metal trashcan. The officer also saw the man throw a black object over in the weeds.

Officers Dennis Guider, Eddie Range and Jamie Whitt approached the subject and got him into custody. Officer Guider found the item the man tossed into the weeds and it was a Lorcin .380 pistol black in color. The man was identified as Blane Glenn Upham, aka Bud. Bud had shot all the

Unlicensed driver flees scene because he didn't feel should have to stop

Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSD was dispatched to Beals Chapel Road on a two-vehicle accident where one party fled the scene. The officer talked with the victim of the accident and she advised that a Hispanic subject in a green truck had hit her in a curve and would not stop. Both vehicles had the driver's side mirror broken off with the vehicle that fled leaving his mirror behind. A witness advised the officer the vehicle in question was sitting on Beals Chapel Road.

The officer went to the address and talked to Mr. Gonzalez-Alonzo and he advised he was the driver and did not have a license or any insurance and he did not feel ken off with the vehicle that fled leaving his mirror behind. A witness advised the officer the vehicle in question was sitting on Beals Chapel Road.

Identity theft

A Knoxville man called police Tuesday when he and his wife learned someone had used her social security number to obtain wireless phone service several years ago while the couple was living in Loudon County.

According to reports, Nelson Howse told Investigator Jeff Vittatoe, LCSD, his wife Kelly is victim of identity theft from back in 2002 when they resided in Loudon County

(see Identity theft pg. 7)

Attempted burglary

Police were called to a Loudon County residence Tuesday when a woman returned home to find someone had tried to break in for the second time in as many days.

According to records, Pam Treadway told Deputy Freddie Gene Walker, LCSD, she no IMing. Later on in the day, this hiatus will pay off when you hit the ground running with a renewed sense of energy and purpose.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

You're right in the thick of it, rolling the dice with key movers and shakers. You're definitely enjoying the commotion, but make sure you don't neglect the smaller yet crucial details of life -- like your loved ones.

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

Push aside your pride, especially if you know that you need help and another person can supply it. Someone you've been ducking has the solution for your dilemma. Think of the end gain and suck up the momentary embarrassment.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

It's time to look within. Examine your occasional tendency toward negativity or cynicism. Is there a part of you that's overcompensating for a deep-rooted fear? Open yourself to healing. Let yourself move on.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

You're fed up with compromise. Making decisions by committee results in mediocrity. Let yourself go and trust in the process, and you'll find some unexpected delight. Go from moment to moment and everything will be fine.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

You're ready to move into a different social orbit when a new friend takes you by the hand. It seems intimidating at first, but you'll soon see that you belong right in the epicenter. Your confidence will bowl them over.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Sometimes it's difficult to figure out what reaction someone else is looking for. Well, that's beside the point. You shouldn't have to program your reactions for anyone or anything. Be honest with yourself.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Be kind when a loved one keeps asking you for your opinion. After all, you're so money; is it really a surprise they want your advice? Remind them that while you can show them the way, they have to take the first steps.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

Boredom is your biggest enemy. So find ways to annihilate it by any means possible. Just make sure you're discreet about your methods -- you don't want to get called out by your boss for text messaging during a meeting.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

You've got some very revolutionary ideas about how to proceed, but keep them to yourself for now. If you discuss them too soon, they could upset the structure of what you want to strengthen. Wait for the right time.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

You're putting out fires everywhere, and the people in your life are grateful. It's a great combination of luck, opportunity and reflexes that let you move so quickly.

While this is satisfying, you may need downtime soon.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

Phew! Now that you have that big project under your belt or that big talk out of the way, you can relax. These celestial influences help you get a grip. You see how much responsibility you have for your actions.

to the accident.

Christopher M. Nicely, 23, Shagbark Drive, Powell, was charged Tuesday with DUI first offense.

According to records, Nicely was involved in a traffic crash along I-75 near the 70 mile marker around 4:35 p.m. and told Trooper Rodney Redmon, THP, he had taken methadone around 12 noon.

The trooper reported Nicely advised he had taken the methadone at a Georgia methadone clinic and was on his way back when the accident occurred. Nicely's speech was very fast, slurred and hard to understand. His eyes were red, pupils dilated and he could not perform the tasks as requested.

Nicely was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

came home and discovered the screen had been raised on her front window and on several others. She advised someone had tried to break in late Sunday as well and she called the Sheriff's Department.

The officer reported Treadway further advised they have also been getting harassing phone calls and the voice on the phone appears to be that of a juvenile male.

A patrol request was issued for the area.

Police Beat

Becky L. Kagley, a.k.a. Fernandez, 27, Kelly Lane, Lenoir City, was charged with theft under $500 Tuesday.

According to records, a store manager at Ingles saw remove DVD movies from the previously viewed rack and go to the restroom with them. Another employee was in the men's room and reported he heard wrappers being removed.

When Kagley left the restroom, the employee went inside and found the empty movie wrappers. The manager then confronted Kagley and she admitted to taking the movies and concealing them in her purse. Kagley's intent was to leave the Highway 321 business without paying for the merchandise, which was valued at $90.93.

Officer Jeremy Dishner, LCPD, made the arrest.

Police Beat

Eric Bradley Rowland, 23, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, was charged with violation of probation Tuesday.

According to records, Rowland was convicted of first offense DUI and placed on probation for a term of 11 months 29 days.

Since that time, Rowland reportedly has not reported to his probation officer and was sent a final notice, has not paid on fees (owes $152.50), has not paid on court costs and fines (owes $688) and has failed two drug screens.

Deputy Daniel Ferguson, LCSD, made the arrest at the Loudon County Jail.

Nathan Anthony James, 24, Warrior Circle, Oak Ridge, was arrested on a criminal court capias charging him with failure to appear for trial on 1 count of speed limit, 1 count of driving on revoked 5th, and 1 count of driving without a license.

Deputy Daniel Ferguson, LCSD, made the arrest at the Loudon County Jail.

Elizabeth A. Johnson, 34, Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City, was charged with public intoxication Tuesday.

According to records, the arrest came after Officer Jeremy Dishner, LCPD, was dispatched to Weigel's, Highway 321, in reference to a disturbance call.

The lawman reported

he arrived and spoke to Johnson, who fit the description of the female who was causing problems inside the store. Johnson had slurred speech, was unsteady on her feet and smelled of an alcoholic beverage.

Johnson was deemed a danger to herself and others and was transported to jail just after 10:00 p.m.

Gordon D. Narmore, 26, of Cedar St., Loudon, was charged with driving on revoked 2nd.

According to the report, Narmore was stopped for not wearing his seat belt. A check showed him to have a revoked license with one prior conviction.

Officer Steven Gutt, LPD made the arrest.
