Fishing with Gus

Toad is a fixin' to have his annual fishing tournament next week and it's a fun one to fish in because he mixes it up. He makes everyone enter the tournament a week before it actually starts and then he tells them what they will be fishing for. Could be anything; one year it was crawdads, which was won by the usual winner, Billy (CoonFoot) Seveirs.

The best part of the tournament is watching Ol Sven Peterson, who is probably the best all-around fisherman this side of the Missis-

TWRA Says "Be Prepared For Bears"

Bear populations have increased dramatically in the eastern United States in the last 20 years. Tennessee's bear population is no exception. It is now probably higher than it has ever been in the last 100-150 years. Most of Tennessee's bear habitat exists on public lands in the Southern Appalachian Mountains. As Tennessee's human population increases, and more people move near public lands, bear interactions with humans will continue to increase.

Horoscopes

getting them completed. Now that you've achieved a nice understanding of the balance between free will and fate, what's next?

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

Okay, so you have to share the money and the credit. However, if you find the right partner, you can divide your workload in half and increase your quality of life. Doesn't that seem like a worthwhile trade-off?

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

Onward and upward! It's time to aim at unknown horizons. It's been too long since you've made a choice to do something brave, bold and challenging. It's a little scary at first, but you'll soon start to enjoy the ride.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

Are you conflating your sense of self-worth with the material possessions you own? Come on -- shouldn't you use a standard that actually means something instead? Ask yourself real questions and you'll get real answers.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

Okay, this idea is weird. Wait -- or is it brilliant? It's hard to tell right now. The stars say to write it all down and evaluate later when you're more level-headed. Right now it's all about creating, not editing.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

It's very rare to know you're at a turning point -- usually most of us only realize such things in hindsight. However, all this knowledge might actually keep you from making a choice. Follow your instincts and go for it.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Deal with the facts and just the facts. Then let your imagination run wild and make of them what you will. That dance between reality and fantasy is what gives today that special kind of excitement.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

You're slowly working out your life goals, both at home and on the job. Deep down, you're wondering if you're making too many demands. The universe, however, thinks you're not making enough. Dream big.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

People love you and your work. Don't coast, though. Use this lull to scrutinize the project you're working on. If you play critic now, you'll forestall any issues that might come up later and it'll be smooth sailing.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

Your thinking becomes more eclectic and original -- but in a parallel development, your behavior becomes a little more off the wall. Your loved ones may not quite get your unconventional ideas just yet.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

Understanding the situation is everything, especially if a certain person takes offense at something you said. Wait for them to calm down. Then, explain your original intent. That should be enough to clear up the matter.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

Taking stock of your life isn't always easy, especially when you have an either/or attitude about it. Instead of passing judgment, try seeing all the events in your life honestly and without taking them personally.

sippi, even though he was born north of the Mason Dixon.

Sven has two major problems: one is that he cracks under pressure. He has fished in every tournament since 1974 and the best he has ever done was a tie for fourth place and the only reason he finished that high was the fact that only three boats caught fish. So actually there were 23 boats tied for fourth.

One year his wife Molly went with him to keep his spirits up; she won second place and he finished 17th.

Now for his second problem: Coonfoot has been Sven's fishing partner for the entire time he has lived in Tennessee. Sven has never beat Coonfoot in a tournament even though he out-fishes him every time they fish for fun. -Gus

Bears

Every year the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency (TWRA) receives hundreds of calls and complaints concerning black bears. Most of the complaints are of bears raiding garbage containers, bird feeders, and pet food left outdoors. Additionally, some irresponsible people even intentionally feed bears. As a result of the improper storage of garbage, easy availability of bird seed, and the direct feeding of bears, animals often become habituated to humans and become a nuisance and a threat to human safety. Nationwide bear management experience has shown the life expectancy of "nuisance" bears may be less than half of that of "wild" bears that do not have repeated contact with humans. Disappointingly, there are no other alternatives but to destroy bears that have become a threat to human safety. Last year hundreds of agency man-hours were spent addressing bear-human conflicts and at least seven bears were destroyed as a result of irresponsible behavior of people directly and indirectly feeding bears. The fact that "Garbage Kills Bears" is irrefutable. Remember, a fed bear is a dead bear. As summer approaches and the likelihood of bear sightings increases, the TWRA encourages residents to educate themselves by being "bear aware."

Please help keep our communities safe by preserving the "wild" nature of bears by following these few simple tips:

Do not feed bears.

Store garbage in bear-proof containers or in a manner that is inaccessible to bears.

Do not feed birds between April and January when bears are most active.

Keep pet food indoors and feed pets in the house or garage.

Do not add food to your compost piles.

Keep cooking grills clean and stored indoors when not in use.

When camping or picnicking, keep your site clean. Never leave food or coolers unattended. Never keep food in or near your tent. Store food in properly sealed containers, and whenever possible, store these containers in a vehicle. If camping in backcountry areas, hang packs or food bags at least ten feet off the ground and at least four feet from the trunk of a tree.

TWRA believes that bears and humans can coexist. Often all that is required to prevent bear-human conflicts is to simply stop feeding bears, properly store garbage, remove bird feeders, and/or keep pet food indoors. Disappointingly, some people are often reluctant to do the simplest of measures to keep our Tennessee bears "wild" and therefore safe. Despite the fact that garbage kills bears, it is often difficult, if not impossible, to communicate this to the public.

Until the public stops feeding bears and acknowledges the fact that garbage does indeed kill bears, then the TWRA along with other responsible wildlife agencies will have no choice but to euthanize bears that become a threat to humans.

For more information and or technical assistance regarding black bears in Tennessee, visit the Region IV web site at www.twraregion4.org, or contact the TWRA Region IV office at (423) 587-7037.

Loden

According to the warrant, on April 18th Mr. Gagley of Tellico Village Public Works reported that he had caught Shauna Loden illegally obtaining water. Loden's water meter had been pulled out due to unpaid bills in the amount of $120. When Loden didn't make any attempt to pay the bill after the meter was pulled Mr. Gagley became suspicious as to how they were living without water. Mr. Gagley went to the residence in the early morning hours on April 18th where he discovered Loden was hooking up a water hose to the line illegally during the night then removing it during the day when the public works people would make their rounds to check it.

Shauna Loden, 28, of Pocola Way, Loudon was charged with theft of services. Deputy Mike Williams, LCSD made the arrest.

Police Beat

Travis Daniel Rimes, 38, of E. 7th Avenue, Apopka, FL, was charged with assault by domestic violence and driving on suspended.

According to the report, Officer Mark Maxwell, LCPD was dispatched to Kings Inn to a possible domestic assault. On arrival the officer spoke to the victim who reported Rimes had assaulted her.

The victim had red marks around her throat where she had possibly been choked. The victim did have a mark on her left cheek that had a small amount of blood coming from the wound.

The suspect was later found coming off the interstate and found to have a suspended license. Officer Mark Maxwell, LCPD made the arrest.
