K-9 tracks chicken thief

A local man was taken into custody after he reportedly ran from police who stopped the vehicle he was in because they knew he had a warrant for theft against him. The theft warrant was issued after the man allegedly stole chicken from a local grocer last month and his attempt at flight garnered him the additional charge of fleeing.

The K-9 officer was alerted and tracked Hill to a location about a half-mile from the stop where Hill was taken into custody. Sgt. Russell then charged him with fleeing lawful arrest.

The warrant for theft charges Hill with theft under $500 in connection with allegations he stole chicken from a local grocery store on April 27, 2007.

According to Detective Jack Fine, LCPD, Hill is accused of going to Ingles, Highway 321, Lenoir City, where he concealed three packs of chicken and left the store with the intent to deprive the owners of the property.
