A word from the publisher

We at the Daily Edition have been proud to serve our community for 26 years and running. We will continue to provide the only Daily Newspaper of General Circulation in Loudon County. We however, must face the fact that everything has increased in price except us.

For the past 11+ years we have charged a mere 35¢ for the publication. The price of producing that paper has increased ten times over that period. Effective June 25, 2007, we must increase the price of the paper to 50¢,

In the movies, makeovers always lead to big, dramatic changes in other parts of the protagonist's life. Sure, that's the movies, you say, but have you thought that there might be a teeny kernel of truth to that?

The proposal also contains some ideas that may be even more unpopular, such as the ambitious goal to reduce carbon dioxide emissions by 4.4 million metric tons by 2020; the equivalent of eliminating two small coal-fired power plants or taking 500,000 cars off the road.

The new plan is aimed at making Denver a national leader in reducing gas emissions that have been linked to global warming.

All that stuff is OK, but here's where I have a problem: the temperature at Denver International Airport fell to 31 degrees at 5:44 a.m. Friday, setting a new record low for that date.

If you are like me and find this a little strange, go on and dig some more and I will bet you a dollar to a doughnut that the people at the top who are making the changes will be benefiting in some other way than by just helping global warming, if you know what I mean.

Notification

of the burglary at the Drug Store last week, most of these incidents are occurring during the day between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. while most people are at work or away from their residence. I have assigned multiple patrol units to the community and investigators are working in the area in numerous inconspicuous vehicles in an attempt to apprehend the individuals involved.

We are asking the community to be vigilant and report any suspicious activity, vehicles or individuals. If someone approaches your residence under the pretense of looking for someone, selling anything, asking for work, or just look out of place, please contact the sheriff's office through the dispatch center at (865) 986-9081. This is a 24 hour direct line to the Loudon County Communications Center and will be the most time efficient way to have a deputy dispatched other than calling 911. If you do see and report suspicious activity please try to observe any vehicle descriptions, direction of travel, suspect clothing, or any other information that can be used to locate and identify the suspicious person or vehicle. These efforts will greatly assist detectives in solving these crimes. Please feel free to contact Lt. Jeff Vittatoe with any questions or concerns that do not need an immediate response from a patrol deputy. Lt. Vittatoe can be reached at (865) 988-2306 or by email at jvittatoe@loudoncountysheriff.org. Thank you for your continuing support and assistance, Sheriff Tim Guider
