times that's true. Other times, however, that temptation is there precisely because it should be yielded to. So which is it in this case?

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

Deep, slow satisfaction is so much more real than fleeting pleasure -- or at least that's what you tell yourself while you're waiting for your rewards to manifest. You know, you have a point. Keep on keeping on.

Leo
(Jul 23-Aug 23)

You're an expert at doing a little juggling when multiple people and events make too many demands on your time. Right now the stars recommend that you drop all those balls and focus on just one thing.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

Someone close to you wants an answer to the question, but you're not sure you're ready to give one just yet. If you need breathing room, say so. Insist that they respect your requirements before you reply.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

There are certain kinds of information that can't be learned; they just have to be experienced. So stop wondering if there's a way you could have prepared for this better. Now you know, and you're much wiser.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Could it be that what you're feeling is being projected onto a different person? Before you start saying that so-and-so is such a jerk, sit down and examine what's going on with you. Everything might become clear.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Be direct about your needs. That doesn't mean you can shirk responsibilities. If anything, it means you have to be more upfront and involved in the necessary tasks of your life. Things will get better.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

A project flourishes under your guidance, especially when you carve out regular chunks of time to work on it. While a few other things in your life may have to fall temporarily by the wayside, you'll love the results.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

Digging in your heels can be momentarily satisfying, but that feeling will pass. So hold your ground if you must. Just keep in mind that new information may totally change your point of view very soon.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

Some missing information turns up just in time, especially when it comes to key plans you're trying to put into place. Be patient and don't force the matter. Any sense of urgency is just temporary.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

It's time to banish negativity from your life -- or at the very least to examine the habit and see what it hides. A world of possibilities is out there for you to explore, but you can't see it unless you're willing.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

The stars give you a double shot of your already hard-working energy, especially when it comes to money matters. You're ready to blast through any financial roadblocks that stand between you and your desired goal.

Roadcheck 2007 Results

Commercial Vehicle inspection period dubbed Roadcheck 2007.

During the 72-hour period, Tennessee Highway Patrol Troopers inspected 413 Commercial vehicles at Tennessee's nine weigh stations and at random points along the interstates. During the Level 1 inspections, 59 commercial vehicles and 35 commercial drivers were placed out-of-service. Level 1 inspections are the most thorough and comprehensive inspections and involve all components of the commercial vehicle and driver documents.

Troopers also found 5 Seat belt violations, 33 hours of service violations and 1 false log violation.

Inspectors also discovered one driver operating a vehicle with a suspended license.

Department of Safety Commissioner David Mitchell said, "I am very pleased with the Highway Patrol's efforts during Roadcheck 2007. Tennessee see is a crossroads for large truck traffic from across the country. The Department of Safety will continue to conduct a high number of commercial vehicle inspections to ensure commercial operators are obeying the law for the good of public safety."

In 2006, State Troopers conducted over 73,000 inspections resulting in 5,323 vehicles and 4,886 drivers being placed out-of-service.

Tennessee Highway Patrol Colonel Mike Walker said, "Commercial vehicle inspection is a priority of the Tennessee Highway Patrol, and inspections are an integral part of our enforcement. I am pleased with our work during Roadcheck 2007."

The major objective of Roadcheck 2007 is to increase commercial truck and bus safety and secuin Tennessee during the 78-hour Memorial Day holiday period. That is down from the 16 deaths during the Memorial Day holiday period in 2006 and 20 deaths in 2005.

Department of Safety Commissioner David Mitchell said, "Rigorous enforcement through sobriety and driver license checkpoints across the state is making an impact on the reduction of fatalities and serious injury crashes in Tennessee."

During the holiday weekend from Friday, May 25 through Monday May 28, The Tennessee Highway Patrol deployed Troopers to more than 70 checkpoints in 8 THP districts across the state in an effort to reduce fatalities and serious injury crashes in Tennessee. Only two of the 15 fatalities across the state occurred in alcohol-related crashes. Four motorcyclists were killed, one ATV driver and one pedestrian were among the fifteen deaths. In 2006, six of the deaths, or 37.5%, occurred in alcohol-related crashes.

THP Commander Colonel Mike Walker said, "Nationally in 2005, 77 percent of the passenger vehicle occupants in fatal crashes who were buckled up survived the crash. Seat belt use is the single most effective way to protect you and reduce fatalities in motor vehicle crashes," Walker added. "That's why we stress 'Click It or Ticket" to save lives." Despite Tennessee's Primary Seat Belt Usage law, Colonel Walker stressed, "Two-thirds of vehicle occupants who died in Tennessee in 2007 were not restrained."

During the 2007 Memorial Weekend enforcement period, Troopers made the following arrests and citations:

DUI Arrests: 61; Speeding Citations: 2,224; Safety Belt Citations: 788; Child Restraint Citations: 219; Other Citations: 2,379.

The 78-hour, 2007 Memorial Day holiday period began at 6:00pm, Friday May 25, and ended at 11:59, Monday, May 28.

because he said he just forgot to. He was taken into custody for PI.

Justin Matthew Oody, 30, of Grove St., Loudon, was charged with public intoxication.

According to the report, Officer Shane Swearingen, LPD responded to a theft call that had taken place earlier. Upon arrival the attendant told the officer Oody, who was an employee, came in to the store and picked up a 12 pack without paying.

Oody called the store while the officer was there and told them he wanted to come back and pay for it because he had walked out and just forgot to pay and the attendant agreed and there would be no problem.

Upon arrival Mr. Oody had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and stated he had been drinking since 2pm and consumed 5 of the beers he had purchased. Officer Shane Swearingen, LPD made the arrest.

an officer. Upon arrival the officer spoke with the security manager and an employee of the pharmacy and both subjects reported Melody S. Vaughn, a pharmacy technician for the business, was taking medication from the pharmacy without paying for them, or having a prescription for them, for some time.

On Tuesday Ms. Vaughn had 9 hydrocodone and 6 oxycodone on her person that she did not have a prescription for. Ms. Vaughn admitted to both the officer and the managers she had taken the medications and had done so without the knowledge or permission of the business.

Melody S. Vaughn, 45, of Elm Street, Philadelphia, was charged with poss. of sch. II and poss. of sch. III. Officer Jim Thearp, LPD made the arrest.
