A word from the publisher

We at the Daily Edition have been proud to serve our community for 26 years and running. We will continue to provide the only Daily Newspaper of General Circulation in Loudon County. We however, must face the fact that everything has increased in price except us.

For the past 11+ years we have charged a mere 35¢ for the publication. The price of producing that paper has increased ten times over that period. Effective June 25, 2007, we must increase the price of the paper to 50¢, with the exception of the special edition papers (i.e. Grand Jury editions), which are published only at special times during the year and are very large. Those editions will be $1.

We will also be increasing our advertising rates to keep up with the never-ending increase of everything. (We held out as long as we could.) We will still offer classified ads 3 lines for $1 per day.

We will also be making some changes during this time as well. In recent weeks we have strived to bring you more variety and a bigger sense of community and we welcome your input on things you'd like to see in the future.

Thank you for your continued support of Your Daily Edition.

Sincerely,
Dan Bell, Publisher
