ous subjects in the yard yelling at each other and discovered the incident was a domestic dispute.

Upon investigating and acquiring statements from the involved parties the officer was able to determine the following sequence of events:

Matthew Brian Guider and his girlfriend Nikita Lajuan Russell, both live at the residence of his mother. An argument ensued between Matthew and his mother in reference to Matthew stealing some money from an individual the night before. The mother advised Matthew and Nikita they had to move out of her residence and a heated argument ensued that also included Matthew's sister.

Nikita then is reported to have assaulted Matthews's sister about the head area. The mother attempted to pull Nikita off of the daughter and Matthew then pushed his mother in the chest area down onto a couch.

Statements advise Matthew then pulled out a pair of brass knuckles and hit his sister in the head with them. The victim's boyfriend then called 911 for assistance and when he did Matthew stepped outside and threw the brass knuckles into the woods.

Upon arrival of Officer Harrison he noticed a pump knot on the sister's forehead who was also complaining of pain in her neck and shoulder area and in her left foot. The sister's small children, ages 2 and 3, were also injured during the altercation and the officer observed fresh injuries to both children in the facial area.

The sister and two children were transported by EMS to Fort Sanders Loudon for evaluation.

Matthew Brian Guider, 19, of Teepee Street, Loudon was charged with aggravated assault by domestic violence and simple poss.

Nikita Lajuan Russell, 18, of Teepee Street, Loudon was charged with assault by domestic violence. Officer Samuel Harrison, LPD made the arrests.
