and thrown it into a ditch.

According to records, Deputy Johnny Brown, LCSD, responded to the call and reported he met with Wayne Fox who lives in Roane County but whose mailbox is in Loudon County.

Fox advised he has been missing some mail over the last few weeks and when he found some of his mail in a ditch Wednesday he talked to his mail carrier who advised the mail had been delivered the previous day. Fox further advised the post office told him to file a report about the missing and vandalized mail.

No other information was available at the time of the report.

Stolen

Lonky Barger. Barger advised his company, J.B. Barger & Son, Inc., had been putting water pipe along the roadway and the skid loader was parked along the shoulder of Clay Hollow Road.

The skid loader was discovered missing

Tuesday morning and it appeared someone had pulled it through the ditch to roadway where they loaded it up on another vehicle.

The officer reported there was broken glass on the road where the skid loader had been loaded up and Barger thinks the thieves broke the front window on the machine while stealing it.

The skid loader was valued at $63,159.

A further search of the room yielded one large crack "cookie", 9.1 grams found in an armoire drawer along with three pills, later found to be muscle relaxers.

A further search of the room produced a clear baggie containing 7-8 crack rocks totaling about 1 gram. A citation was not issued because it is likely the offense will continue.

Shane Thomas

Cox, 22, of Crooked Oak Drive, Lenoir City was charged. Deputy Johnny Brown, LCSD made the arrest.

bank statement.

Ronnie Crawley of Watkins Road told Investigator Chris White, LCSD, he discovered he had a check missing when he got his bank statement and the check had been made out to Kristy Smith in the amount of $900.

Crawley reportedly advised he did not write the check, nor did he give anyone permission to write the check.

The investigator noted the check was signed Kristy Smith on the back and false driver's license had been used. Crawley's signature was forged on the check and Smith has outstanding warrants against her for similar crime against Crawley.

This is why we get licensed...

Steven James Perkins, 18, Ashley Lane, Philadelphia as charged with driving without a license Thursday.

According to records, Deputy Jake Keener, LCSD, was directing traffic at an accident scene along Highway 11 at Warrior's Trail in Philadelphia when he saw a Geo Prism driving northbound towards the scene.

The driver of the Geo ignored several directions to stop and the officer had to place himself between the vehicle and a downed line to prevent a collision.

The deputy reported he approached the driver and identified him as Perkins and asked for his driver's license. Perkins said he had never obtained a license and produced a TN ID card.

A check thorough dispatch confirmed Perkins is unlicensed in the State of Tennessee.

Busted

Donald Everett Cain, 35, of Arnold Road, Paint Rock, was charged with public intoxication.

According to the report, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD was dispatched to the Cit-go for a woman who stated she was being held against her will and her husband was wanted in Indiana. Upon arrival the officer made contact with Regina Cain and she stated her husband was wanted out of Indiana and she had dropped him off on July 72.

Cain was found slinking and had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person. A check showed he was wanted in Indiana for VOP. Officer Bennie Houser, LPD made the arrest.

Fishing

Questions regarding monster fish, so we thought we'd go looking for answers from Gus. Here's what he had to say:

Q. One of the most asked questions concerned the age of the fish. How old do you think it was?

A. This old fella would be around forty years old.

Q. The belly of the fish seemed rather fat and droopy, do you think the fish was pregnant?

A. No, Blue cats will only get so long, just like us humans, if you eat a lot and you can't grow longer, that only leaves one place for it to go, the belly and it will keep getting bigger and bigger until he's almost as wide as he is long. The reason I know it's not pregnant is that it's in the middle of the summer, catfish spawn in the spring.

Q. On average, how long does it take for a fish to grow to such an enormous size?

A. An easy way to figure it is two to three pounds a year, but water temp and food availability will influence the outcome so there is no absolute equation to figure out exactly how fast they will grow.

Q. It would be a shame to see a fish like this lose its life (thank goodness this one didn't) and most people are inclined to think it's meat would be rather tough. What do you think, Gus; would a whopper like that be any good served up at a fish fry?

A. If you were starving then I guess you could eat one, but cats under five pounds would be much tastier and I don't have a frying pan large enough to fry a 30 pound fillet.

Q. What kind of bait did Shane use, what kind of line was used, how many people did it take to get it in the boat, what kind of a fight did it put up, and what time of day was it?

A. I'm not sure, but the bait of choice is skipjack herring (Shad) any where from a 1/2 pound to a 2 pound bait. The line we use is eighty pound braided made by Power-Pro. The fight: Shane told me that it felt like a 40 pound-er until it saw the boat. There was just two people in the boat and I know they have a net big enough to land a fish of this size. This fish was caught in the day.

Q. Do you think the lake's, er. location has anything to do with the size of the fish and are monster fish more likely to be found in such places?

A. Well, we are fortunate to live where these giants lurk and that in the Tennessee River System, which has plenty of cool oxygenated water where large numbers of bait fish live. The number of bait fish in our waterways keep the cats fat and happy. It's all about where the food is.

Q. Was this a record catch for Watts Bar Lake?

A. I don't think so. I have heard of two other hundred pound fish that were caught closer to Watt's Bar Dam.

Q. What do catfish eat anyway?

A. Catfish in general are scavengers and will eat about anything that they can fit in their mouth. I have caught catfish using hot dogs, livers, shrimp, shad, blue-gills, crappie, bass, trout, stink bait, minnows, lures, jigs; if it stinks, they will eat it.

Q. Is there anything you can add?

A. There is a new cat fishing club that will be starting this fall out of Toad's Bait Shop. If you are interested in learning how to catch trophy catfish, you need to check it out. Don't have a boat, that's ok, they are planning a few bank tournaments and catfishing classes. Email Gus@ToadsBaitShop.com or call 804-4822 for more information. Almost all Catfish clubs only offer fishing tournaments, no information. You have to depend on your own knowledge and luck, no help from club leaders. This club is different, we want to help you catch trophy catfish. Anyone can catch trophy catfish with the right information. -Gus

Police Beat

Morgan Lynn Reynolds, 19, Valley Vista Drive, Loudon, was charged with violation of probation Wednesday.

According to an affidavit, Reynolds was convicted of simple possession, schedule IV, and first offense violation of probation and was sentenced to misdemeanor probation for a term of 11 months 29 days.

Since that time Reynolds has failed to report to her probation officer (last visit February 5, 2007), failed to pay fines and costs (owes about $1233, last payment made on November 7, 2006), failed to pay supervision fees (owes $410, last payment made January 22, 2007), and failed to respond to written and verbal notices ("Final Notice" letter sent on March 14, 2007, attempted phone contact made on May 22, 2007).

Deputy Maples made the arrest.

Israel David Carr, 35, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, was charged with DUI, simple possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia Friday.

According to records, the arrest came after Officer Tony Lindsey, LPD, stopped Carr's vehicle for driving 60 M.P.H. in a 45 M.P.H. zone and upon speaking with him detected the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from Carr's person.

The officer reported he asked Carr if he had been drinking and Carr said he'd had one beer and then performed sobriety tasks.

A Crown Royal bag was in plain view in the back of the vehicle and when asked what was in it, Carr reported he had some marijuana in it and that he had just smoked a marijuana cigarette.

A search of the bag produced two plastic bags containing what was believed to be marijuana, three packs of rolling papers, a pipe used to smoke marijuana and a container holding about eight marijuana roaches.

Carr was placed under arrest and transported to jail.

Billy Eugene Jones, 34, of Steekee Road,

Loudon, was charged with driving on suspended.

According to the report, Deputy Jerramie Bowen, LCSD observed Jones and ran a tag that came back to a different vehicle.

A check of Jones license showed them to be suspended for failure to pay child support. Deputy Jerramie Bowen, LCSD made the arrest.
