Bike thief charged

Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD has charged a 4th avenue Lenoir city man with stealing a 10-speed bike from a neighbor.

Paul Douglas Helton

in Lenoir City. While there Helton took a gray Huffy 10 speed bicycle valued at $130.

Helton was seen by a neighbor who identified him as being the one who took the bicycle. This was done without the permission or knowledge of the owner.

Paul Douglas Helton, 49, of West 4th Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged with theft under $500.

Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD made the arrest.

Employees dropping like prices

Although prices may be falling at Wal Mart the stuff still ain't free. Another Wal Mart employee has been charged with theft after she was discovered to have taken over $700 over a 12 day period.

According to the warrant, filed by Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD; on or about July 12, 2007 Christina Leeann Stanton was employed at Wal Mart on Hwy 321 in Lenoir City.

Between July 12th and July 24th Stanton did take approximately $718 worth of merchandise and money from the Wal Mart without anyone's permission or knowledge. This was done to deprive the store the true ownership of the money and merchandise.

Christina Leeann Stanton, 18, of West Lane, Lenoir City was charged with theft over $500. Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD made the arrest and filed the charges.

10 in a little over an hour.

Now, a man walked up and said let me introduce myself, I am the local Game Warden. You apparently have broken a law because we don't allow fishing on Friday's here in Citico. I'm afraid I'm going to have to fine you $180 per fish. The fisherman looked straight at the Game Warden and said "do you happen to know who I am Mr. Game Warden?"

The Warden said he had no idea who he was, but he was about to find out.

The fisherman said let me introduce myself, meet "the biggest liar in Tennessee."

the judicial process. Remember you are entering a court of law.

1. Skirts and skorts must extend below the fingertip level when arms are down.

2. NO SHORTS.

3. All pants must be worn at waist level. No sagging or low riding.

4. Any undershirts or tank tops must be worn with another "cover-up" shirt.

Shoulders, backs, chests and midribs must be covered.

5. No see-through type or suggestive clothing is to be worn. Undergarments must not be visible.

6. All shirts, including athletic jerseys, - with the exception of sweaters, sweat-shirts or vests - must be tucked in pants or skirts.

7. Shoes or sneakers must be worn at all times. No flip-flops or house shoes (slippers) are permitted.

8. No head-coverings such as bandannas, "do-rags," scarves, sweatbands, hair nets, hats or caps are to be worn or visible in the courtroom. Hoods on lightweight garments or sweat-shirts may not be pulled over the head. Sunglasses shall be removed and stored out of sight.

9. No clothing which advertises drugs, alcohol, or tobacco, or displays inappropriate/offensive language (sex, profanity, racial or ethnic slurs, gang-related attire, etc.) may be worn. Tattoos which display drugs, sex, alcohol, or tobacco products must not be visible at any time.

10. Clothing which has been intentionally torn in inappropriate places is prohibited.

11. For security reasons, chains, spiked accessories, and oversized jewelry are not permitted.

The Court reserves the right to modify this policy as necessary and reserves the right to determine what might be disruptive and unsafe dress or appearance in the courtroom.

If you are dressed in violation of this policy, you will not be permitted in the courtroom or will be required to leave.

was charged with burglary.

According to the warrant, filed by Investigator Jason Smith, LCSD CID; on July 22, 2007 at approximately 1:57 a.m. Mr. Julio Lumbet did enter JB's Country Store on Hwy 321 in Lenoir City. The store was entered by forcing the lock off of the door of the business.

Mr. Julio Lumbet entered the store and took a cash drawer from a second subject who had also entered the business. The cash drawer contained $100 in mixed bills.

Lumbet also took candy from the store and was identified by video surveillance taken from within the store.

Corporal Teresa Smith, LCSD made the arrest at the jail.

Accident

On Thursday, July 26th officers from the Lenoir City Police Dept. and rescue workers from the Lenoir City Fire Dept. along with Rural Metro Ambulance Service responded to a call of a wreck of a vehicle on 10th Ave. in Lenoir city.

Upon arriving at the scene the police and rescue workers discovered a 1998 Honda Prelude, being driven by 32 yr. old Emily Heather Litwin of Disco Loop Rd., Friendsville, impacted on a tree by the side of the roadway.

Ms. Litwin sustained multiple injuries from the crash and was unable to remove herself from the vehicle.

Medical workers determined that Litwin had sustained a compound fracture to her right foot, and she was complaining of pain in her hip area.

After removing the driver from the vehicle she was transported to Park West Medical Center for further evaluation and treatment.

Officers Dennis Guider and Rick Eubanks of the Lenoir City Police Dept. discovered, through a routine check of Ms. Litwin's license, that she was driving on a revoked license for failure to satisfy and had identification only. The charge of driving on a revoked license is currently pending against Ms. Litwin by

Man nabbed using fake travelers cheques

DAILY EDITION July 30, 2007 • Page 11

Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD has apprehended and charged a local man with three counts of criminal simulation after the man is reported to have used fake travelers cheques on three different occasions and you know what they say "three strikes, you're out".

According to the warrants, on or about July 5, 2007 Scottie Joe Mainor went to BB&T Bank on Hwy 321 and while at the bank he handed the cashier a $500 American Express Gift Cheque. The cashier ran a check on the account and the cheque was counterfeit. Mainor did this knowing the cheque was no good.

On or about July 5, 2007 Mainor went to Goody's on Hwy 321 and handed the cashier a $500 Visa Travelers Cheque and she took the cheque for merchandise he had bought. The total amount was $188.53 and Mainor received $311.47 in cash back. Goody's checked the cheque and discovered it to be counterfeit.

On or about July 14, 2007 Scottie Mainor went to Goody's on

Scottie Joe Mainor

terfeit.

Scottie Joe Mainor, 31, of West Park Inn, Knoxville, was charged with criminal simulation x3. Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD made the arrest and filed the charges.

What a man does for others, not what they do for him, gives him immortality.
