Ethan Wayne Vincil, age 36, of Lenoir City, went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, October 26, 2008. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Jess and Mimi Vincil and Jack Hamilton. Ethan is survived by his wife, Sloan who was his best friend and soul mate; children, Haley and Cole whom he loved dearly and thought about everyday; mother, Sam Vincil; father, Wayne Vincil and wife, June; grandmother, Susan Hamilton; brothers, Jason Vincil and wife, Melinda, Collin Vincil and wife, Christy; sister, Sara Vincil; several aunts and uncles including very special uncle, Bill "Jess" Vincil; mothers-in-law and fathers-in-law, Bill and Vicki Raney, and Ron and Teresa Flagg; brother-in-law, Chris Flagg; sister-in-law, Jenny Sheehan; several nieces, nephews and cousins including special nephew, Hunter. Ethan had many friends and everyone that knew him was touched by him, laughed with him and loved him dearly. He will be deeply missed and never forgotten. The family will receive friends from 1 to 2 p.m. Saturday with memorial services to follow at 2 p.m. in the Click Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Jon Henson officiating. Click Funeral Home, 109 Walnut Street, Lenoir City is serving the Vincil family. Annual Candle Light Service The annual Candlelight Memorial Service sponsored by Click Funeral Home will be held on Sunday, December 7 at 3:00 p.m. at the Click Funeral Home Farragut Chapel, 11915 Kingston Pike, Farragut. If you choose, during this service, each person/family will have the opportunity to light a candle in memory of their loved one. If you choose not to light a candle, that's alright, too. You may just want to come to the service for a time of reflection and to enjoy the beautiful music. This light reminds us that the treasured thoughts and memories of our loved ones live on. This Candlelight Service is free and open to the community.

of the evening with some other people that were at the apartment. Around 12:30am the victim's boyfriend came in from work and found James Masingale Jr having intercourse with the victim.

When they tried to get the victim up she was unresponsive. The victim stated that at no time did she agree or give Masingale permission to have intercourse with her.

James Robert Masingale Jr, 55, homeless was charged with rape. Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD made the arrest and filed the charges.

Foiled

property ransacked.

Deputy Jason Goddard, LCSD, was dispatched to the home of Wayne Humphreys at approximately 3:52 a.m. and upon arriving spoke with Humphreys who said he woke up around 2:57 a.m. and heard his dog barking and when he went to check on the dog he was walking through his house and saw his back porch light go off.

Humphreys advised

he walked into the kitchen towards the back door and saw someone standing on his back porch. Thinking the person was his wife he went to open the door, but it was locked and as he unlocked it he saw a man run from his back porch towards the side of his house.

Humphreys further advised he went after the man, but the man had gotten to his driveway, jumped in a vehicle and sped off turned right onto Blue Springs Road and went towards Roane County.

Records indicate Humphreys told the officer he then checked his property and discovered someone had gone through his vehicle, his wife's vehicle, his barn, his workshop and his back porch. The passenger side door of Humphreys' vehicle was left open, several doors in the barn were left open and a closet door on the back porch was left open.

The light bulb on the back porch had also been unscrewed from its socket.

Humphreys stated several items had been moved out of place, but he couldn't find anything missing at the time of the report. A vehicle description was given to police.

Police Beat

Daniel Blake Akins, 23, of Vonore Road, Loudon, was charged with driving on suspended.

According to the report, Sgt. RS Newman, LPD stopped the vehicle Akins was driving for crossing the center line on Hwy 11.

A check of Akins's license showed them to be suspended. Sgt. RS Newman LPD made the arrest.

called 911. He arrived at the barn to see it was burning on the front side closest to Roax Road.

The officer reported John Walton of Leeper Ferry Road arrived on the scene and advised he owned the barn, stating that it had no electricity and the equipment inside had not been used since the second week of September.

The barn and its contents were a total loss. The contents were described as a 472 New Holland haybine, 11 hole John Deere, 9 hole IH grain drill, a New Idea corn picker and 100 round bales of hay that had been put up in May.

The loss was valued at $15,700.

Police Beat

John Michael Covington, 21, of Davis Drive, Lenoir City was charged with purchasing alcohol for a child.

According to the report, Deputy Jerramie Bowen LCSD was dispatched to Shaw Ferry Road of a possible under-age drinking. Upon arrival the deputy spoke with the complainant who stated her sister was downstairs with a subject and they were drinking.

When the deputy went to the basement he found both subjects with alcohol. They came to the door and Christy Louise Sells had a grape Smirnoff Ice in her hand.

John Covington was lying on the bed and when asked if he bought the alcohol he stated he had.

The female was 18 years of age.

Christy Louise Sells, 18, of Shaw Ferry Road, Lenoir City was charged with under-age consumption. Deputy Jerramie Bowen, LCSD made the arrest.

Changi Ho Yi, 28 of Thompson Bridge Road, Greenback, was charged with domestic violence assault.

According to the report, Deputy Mickey Patterson LCSD was dispatched to a domestic at Thompson Bridge Road in Greenback. Upon arrival the deputy found a male standing outside. After talking to both subjects the officer was told the victim had Changi's cell phone and he got mad and tried to take it away. He got a hold of the victim's arm and while she was trying to get out the door to get away he pulled her hair and threw her to the floor.

The victim did have visible injuries to her right arm and some flowerpots were turned over during the assault.
