Nashville, - This year's Great American Smokeout will take place November 20, 2008, to encourage smokers to quit for 24 hours in the hope they may quit for good.

The Tennessee Department of Health encourages tobacco users to call the Tennessee Tobacco QuitLine at 1-800-QUIT-NOW or 1-800-784-8669 to set a plan for how to quit.

"Thousands of Tennesseans have already reached out to the QuitLine and its quit coaches to help them through the difficult process of quitting smoking," said Tennessee Health Commissioner Susan R. Cooper, MSN, RN. "We know this service is a valuable tool to those who want to stop us-taken halfway off. The officer then conducted a search of Mr. Martin and found the lock and screws from the bathroom door and a screwdriver he had used to comment the theft. Martin admitted to officers he needed a lock and did try to steal the lock.

Jason Allen Martin, 23, of Reago Valley Road, Tellico Plains, was charged with vandalism, theft under $500 and possession of burglary tools. Officer Blake Norman, LPD made the arrest.

Rosato

NJ, was charged with driving on suspended, DUI and driver license violation.

According to the report, Rosato was involved in a single vehicle accident with injury and was taken to UT hospital for treatment of injuries.

Upon a search of the vehicle several prescription medications were discovered which may have contributed to the accident. It was discovered Rosato was taking methadone, hydrocodone, xanax, and other medications.

A search of his history revealed Rosato to have a suspended license out of New Jersey. Trooper Phillip Wagner, THP made the arrest after Rosato was released from UT Medical Center.

Mishap

hauling 30 thousand lbs. of staple foods when he tried to turn around and slid off the roadway. The only thing that kept him from being completely turned over into the creek was a tree on the side of the road.

Moneymakers had two wreckers on the scene along with Chestnut Street Transportation & Recovery Inc. who were there to help with attempts to get the trailer back on the road.

The driver reportedly told police he saw a sign stating no 18 wheelers beyond this point where East Tellico Parkway merges from two lanes to one into Axley Chapel Road but continued to go past that point. When he came to the fork of the road in front of Coytee Road he tried to turn around.

No one was hurt in the accident.
