Police beat

Rueen Flores Rubio, 36, of Maremont Parkway, Loudon, was charged with assault by domestic violence.

Loudon Police Department was dispatched to a possible disturbance call located at an apartment on Maremont Parkway in Loudon. There is a significant amount of history at this particular address, specifically numerous domestic disturbances the report noted.

Upon arrival, officers discovered there had indeed been a physical domestic altercation involving Mr. Rubio and his male roommate. Both men live together with a female subject, who is supposedly the girlfriend of the other male roommate. However, Rubio claims to also have a sexual relationship with the female and is a great source of friction, which has led to domestic disturbances in the recent past, recently resulting in Rubio being arrested for domestic assault.

According to the male and female roommates, they were enjoying a Thanksgiving meal when both men began arguing over her.

The couple advised the officer a physical altercation then ensued when Rubio grabbed the other man around the neck. The officer also observed a fresh offensive cut/wound to Rubio's left fist/knuckle.

A child in the apartment who observed the incident confirmed the statements made by both roommates.

Officer Samuel Harrison felt Rubio was the primary aggressor and charged him with assault by domestic violence.

Hit and Run

Brown advised his brother in law, Daniel Thomas parked his 2003 Dodge Neon on Monday morning and went to work.

At approximately 11:40 Brown said walked outside to get the newspaper and found that his brother in law's vehicle had been hit.

The officer noted someone pulled into the driveway to turn around and hit the vehicle in the driver's side quarter panel, and then left the scene.

Deputy Blakney spoke with registered owner, Daniel Thomas and advised him of his options.

Police beat

Randall Scott Henry, 32, of Forkner Road, Sweetwater, was charged with DUI and driving with suspended license. Deputy Deland, LCSD, was dispatched to the area of Fork Creek Road on a possible drunk driver in a white van. The deputy made contact with a white Chrysler van on Fork Creek Road. While observing the van, the vehicle crossed the center lane of travel, crossed back into his lane of travel, nearly driving the vehicle off the roadway. Upon stopping the vehicle,

Multiple Warrants Land Philadelphia Man in Jail

According to reports, Michael Shane Lowe, 29, of Main Hollow Road, Philadelphia, was arrested for multiple warrants. The first warrant contains a charge of violation of probation from a conviction of 5 bad check charges. The affidavit states Mr. Lowe last saw his probation officer on 11/30/04, failed to pay court costs/fines of $1188.45, failed to pay supervision fees of $180.00, and failed to respond to written/verbal notices on 11/30/04.

The next charge is for driving on revoked from 06/19/08. Next on the list is a charge of domestic assault resulting from a road rage incident on 08/19/08. Fourth and finally, the last warrant is for financial responsibility from an accident on 06/26/08. Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSD made the arrest.

the officer made contact with the driver, Randall Henry. Henry was very disoriented and had slurred speech and when asked for his license, Mr. Henry stated it was suspended.

Upon checking Henry through NCIC, his license was discovered to be suspended for failure to satisfy. Henry was asked if he was on any medication. He said that he was not taking anything. The officer had Mr. Henry do the standard field sobriety tests, which he performed poorly on all the tests. Deputy Deland then placed Randall Scott Henry under arrest for driving under the influence and driving on suspended.

While searching the vehicle, the officer found ten empty prescription bottles of methadone. When asked again if he was taking any medication, Henry stated he takes methadone every day because he has a drug problem.

Whitney Danielle Hutto, 24, of Ash Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged with driving on suspended license.

According to the report, an officer was dispatched to Highway 321 in reference to a reckless driver. When the officer made contact with the vehicle in question, he noticed the vehicle had a tail light out and the driver was speeding. A traffic stop was conducted and upon checking the status of her driver's license, Hutto was found to be suspended for failure to appear. Whitney Danielle Hutto was charged with driving on suspended license and cited for speeding and taillight out.

Police beat

Justin Earl Dotson, 22, of Steekee Road,

Loudon, was charged with DUI and implied consent. Officer Jason Butler, LCPD, reported he observed a 1999 Kia Sedan traveling east on Highway 11 near Huntsville Hollow Road. The vehicle crossed the center line and went into the wrong lane and abruptly went back into the correct lane and began following the vehicle in front of his at a distance less than one car length.

Upon making contact with the driver, Justin Dotson, the officer observed an odor of an alcoholic beverage on Mr. Dotson's breath and person, slurred speech, and red bloodshot eyes. Upon asking Mr. Dotson to exit the vehicle, the officer observed that he was extremely unsteady on his feet. Mr. Dotson was given a standardized field sobriety test, which he performed poorly on. Mr. Dotson stated that he had smoked marijuana just prior to driving the said vehicle. Mr. Dotson refused implied consent. Officer Jason Butler made the arrest.

Moises Cortes Cortes, 19, of Bob Gray Road, Knoxville, was charged with assault. Reports indicate on 11/26/08 officers were dispatched to the Century 21 parking lot where a female called 911 stating that someone had put something in her drink and she was having chest pains. On officer's arrival, the female stated that Moises Cortes, her boyfriend, did hit her in the leg and threatened to push her out of the car. She had to be transported to Fort Sanders Medical Center by EMS for her injuries. Officer R. Eubanks, LCPD, made the arrest.

Ida N. Haire, 27 of Jackson St., Athens, was charged with DUI 1st, implied consent and open container. According to the report, Haire was involved in a crash with injury and was unable to answer basic questions. Haire was unable to perform sobriety tasks and she had slurred speech and was unsteady on her feet. There was an open container in the vehicle and she refused a BAC test as well. Trooper Russell Smith THP made the arrest.

Christopher Boyd Hoskins, 34, of Ramsey Lane, Knoxville, was charged with violation of the check law. Deputy Brandon Wilson LCSD made the arrest.

Christopher Curtis Fritts, 28, of Gregory Road, Greenback, was charged with violation of probation. Deputy Daniel Ferguson LCSD made the arrest.
