nary investigation.

The lawman noted the suspect left an item at the scene that was collected for evidence.

Cable

Deputy Deland was dispatched to Walnut Street where he spoke with the driver of an eighteen wheeler that had pulled into the alley. David Allen of KY said when he pulled in he noticed the top of the trailer hauling had pulled the coax cable out a home belonging to Brandy Jordan of Walnut Street.

The officer reported it appeared that only the connectors had been pulled out and the cable can be repaired.

There was no damage to the truck or home and the value of the damage to the cable was unknown.

Police Beat

Dixon

the victim located on 9th Avenue in Lenoir City. The vehicle was a 1991 Geo Storm and Dixon took from the vehicle a Sanyo stereo and speaker box. While in the process of removing the items Dixon damaged the dashboard.

The total cost of the items taken is $200 and $200 worth of damage. Dixon did this without the permission of the owner.

Dixon, 22, of Loudon County Jail, was charged with burglary of a vehicle and theft under $500. Detective Jack Fine, LCPD made the arrest.

Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD charged Dixon with theft under $500.

According to the report, Dixon went to a residence on W. 9th Avenue. While there Dixon went into the bathroom and took $50 from the wallet of the victim that was in his pants hanging in the bathroom.

This was done without the permission or knowledge of the owner. Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD made the arrest.

Accident

Foggy conditions reportedly are to blame for an early morning, two vehicle accident when a local man pulled into the path of an oncoming vehicle.

On Monday emergency workers responded to a wreck on Highway 11 in Lenoir City that sent Melissa Guider of Highland Avenue to the hospital with unspecified injuries that were believed to be minor.

According to reports Guider was traveling east on Highway 11 when a black Ford pickup truck driven by Joshua Gardner of Hardin Drive pulled into the path of her vehicle at the intersection of 11 and Oak Street.

Patrolman Nathan Wilson, LCPD, reported Gardner advised he did not see the oncoming Accura due to the fog.

Assisting LCPD officers were the Lenoir City Fire Department and Loudon County Sheriff's Department.

Rural Metro Ambulance Service responded to the scene and administered first response attention to the injured woman who was transporting three small children at the time of the crash.

It was reported that no injuries were sustained by any of the children.

Gardner reportedly also was uninjured.

Police Beat

Ricky Allen Singer, 39, of Old Sweetwater Road, Sweetwater, was charged with simple poss. of sch.

VI and a warrant out of Knox County.

According to the report, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD observed a vehicle speeding 45mph in a 30mph zone and stopped it.

The driver, Mr. Singer was found to have a warrant out of Knox County and Singer was found to have a small amount of marijuana in the console of his vehicle. Officer Houser made the arrest.

or can be watched at your convenience on the inter-web. This past meeting was another classic. Greg Lumpy Lambert was at the center of everything.

He was in a heated argument about having Attorney Bruce Anderson appointed as a hearings officer.

Voted to take back the Mayor's auto allowance, $70,000 cut.

Attacked Commissioner Mark Harmon by saying "How does that arrogant little university twit sit up there and make decisions."

Lumpy also asked Commissioner Norman to resign from Commission.

He voted not to give the people the right to vote about whether or not they had a choice about qualifications as to who serves on Commission.

And Lumpy got a 5 minute butt-chewing from an elderly black lady. She gave him a working over for five solid minutes, taking very few breaths as she dealt the tongue lashing. After she finished Lumpy left the meeting for several minutes.

Now folks, if you ever wanted to teach your kids about government, now is your chance. If not for the educational teachings, but for the 10 hours of comedy they provide for us every month. -Gus
