ady Road, Etowah, as charged with driving under the influence and driving suspended.

According to the report, Deputy Jason Goddard, LCSD was dispatched to I-75 on a possible drunk driver. The deputy was unable to make contact and notified Knox County and got off the interstate.

Sgt. Billy Hall, LCSD ND then told the deputy along with Deputy Dan Kelly to get back on the interstate and catch up to the vehicle before it wrecked or killed somebody if it was driving that bad. The deputies caught up to the vehicle on I-40 near the truck scales and Deputy Goddard activated his camera to observe the vehicle driving.

While the deputy was behind the vehicle in the fast lane it ran out of the lane of travel onto the median nearly striking the concrete barrier. The vehicle then swerved back into the lane and went across two other lanes and got off on Campbell Station Road.

The deputy then stopped the vehicle on the exit ramp for the safety of the person driving and others on the roadway due to his erratic driving.

The driver was identified as Curtis Scott. Mr. Scott had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and a check of his license showed them to be suspended. Scott performed poorly on sobriety tasks and registered .12% on the intoximeter. Deputy Jason Goddard, LCSD made the arrest.
