Man runs from domestic and law

(see Acuff pg. 4)

LCSD Deputy Jake Keener arrived at the scene of a domestic disturbance on Norwood Street where a female stated Roy Acuff had been drinking and was fighting with the family. Roy was trying to find a gun to go and confront another family member and his wife and daughter were trying to stop him. The daughter stated Roy pushed her and swung his fist at her. The other female reported she then tried to stop Roy and he began hit-

Seagle

Rohlwing of Tellico Village who said she had hired Stacy Joe Seagle in November of 2007 to do some yard work and landscaping and he did do some of the work for a few weeks, but then wanted more money for more work.

Rohlwing reported she gave Seagle

$4500 more and he did about $2200 in work. Rohlwing said she's tried several times to get Seagle to either pay her money back or complete the job but he would not talk to her.

The lawman reported he advised Rohlwing Seagle is being investigated for several more such incidents and told her to write out a statement and bring in all canceled checks and receipts pertaining to the incident, which Rohlwing said she has copies of.

Anyone who has been scammed by Seagle is urged to call Lt. Detective Jeff Vitatone at 865-988-2306 or 865-986-9081.

Drunk

pace in her damaged car.

Kristen Elizabeth Walden, 22, of Sharpsburg Drive, Huntsville, AL, was charged with DUI, violation of implied consent and open container.

According to the report, Deputy Bryan Blakney, LCSD was dispatched to I-75 in reference to a possible drunk driver with two flat tires and both air bags deflated driving down the road. The deputy observed a black Mercury Cougar traveling at a very slow rate of speed with extensive damage to the vehicle.

The deputy pulled out behind the vehicle and activated his emergency equipment. The vehicle continued up the exit ramp at 5 to 10 mph and came to a brief stop twice and then came up the end of the exit ramp 81 and tried to take off again.

At that time Asst. Chief Deputy James Davis II pulled in front of her at an angle from the driver side front fender. Deputy Blakney approached the vehicle and made contact with the driver, Ms. Walden and asked if she was OK and what had happened. She had no clue she had wrecked the vehicle.

While talking with Ms. Walden the deputy could smell a very strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from the driver's compartment of the vehicle. Walden was unsteady on her feet and performed poorly on sobriety tasks.

Walden refused a BAC test and was found to have an open container in her vehicle. She was checked out by EMS at the scene and checked out okay. Deputy Bryan Blakney, LCSD made the arrest.

Identity

Deputy Chip Matthews, LCSD, reported he spoke with Julie Salyers of Knox Street who advised someone obtained a Discover credit card in her name and has charged up $21,000 on the card.

Salyers advised she received a letter from Northland Collection Agency about the matter and she did not open the account, nor did she authorize anyone else to open the account.

Acuff

ting and pushing her.

While headed to the residence Deputy Bryan Blakney observed the vehicle the alleged assailant was in traveling at a high rate of speed down Loudon Ridge Road and turn in a driveway. The officer turned in behind the vehicle and the driver failed to stop and continued on in the driveway and into a field beside the house. The pursuit continued through the field until the driver couldn't go any further and turned around in the field and headed back toward the residence, finally pulling into the driveway of the residence on Loudon Ridge Road. While giving tag information to dispatch the subject tried to get out of the car and the deputy advised him to get back in the car. When the deputy approached the vehicle Mr. Roy Acuff stated he and his wife got into it and he left to come that residence on Loudon Ridge Road to remove his nephew. The deputy asked if he had been drinking and Acuff stated the night before. When asked why he didn't stop Acuff stated, "yeah I was running and I am not going to lie". Acuff performed poorly on sobriety tasks and refused a BAC test.

Acuff, 56, of Norwood Street, Lenoir City was charged with assault by domestic violence, DUI, felony evading arrest and violation of implied consent. Deputies Jake Keener and Bryan Blakney, LCSD made the arrest.

Also participating in the pursuit were Deputy Chris Bowen, and Deputy TJ Scarbrough, LCSD.
