On a Whim

Surprised when the cash register totals up a grocery bill that far exceeds your budget? Maybe you're an impulse shopper. And you may bring home foods you don't use, need or ultimately eat.

If you grocery shop today:

* Plan ahead. Make a shopping list and stick to it.

* Snack beforehand. Or drink bottled water for a temporary full feeling. Studies show that hungry people buy more.

* Steer your cart away from sampling tables. If you do taste, buy only if you really want it, not because a taste feels like an obligation.

* Size up food displays. Before grabbing attention-catching foods or drinks, decide if you really want them, even at a price saving (From the American Dietetic Association)

his dealing with his racist preacher the Reverend Jeremiah Wright, who preaches racist sermons in Chicago.

It seems as if a man who listens to hate America sermons now wants to be president and is leading the Democratic Party.

To me that in itself is a bit scary. Now, I'm not racist at all myself, but I do love America, so I must say that these sermons are a bit offensive to me.

If you hate America you can leave at any time; matter of fact, I bet I can round up the money to get you a boat ride to whatever third world country you want to go back to.

See friend, no hate on my part, I just happen to have a deep love for this country. Mr. Barack Husain
