Habitual DUI driver nabbed by THP on Old 95

The road that contains LCHS, along with parks and fields, was the road of choice for a now 5-time DUI driver, not to mention his 3rd revoked charge, and then he refused a BAC test. Fortunately, Trooper Eric Miller, THP was on the same road and stopped the DUI driver just before 4pm for speeding 50mph in a 30mph zone.

Upon stopping the vehicle cine - Lenoir City, the medical offices of Dr. Ramani Reddy and Dr. Milan Sheth, located at 689 Medical Park Drive in Lenoir City, 9 a.m. - 3:45 p.m. on Wednesday, March 12. Staff with the medical center's University Breast Center will provide screening mammograms.

The screenings are open to all women age 40 or older, except for those with implants or current breast problems (such as lumps, pain, discharge, burning, or history of breast cancer). Call (865) 305-9069 to make an appointment or for more information about insurance, costs or services.

Breast cancer is the most commonly diagnosed cancer among women. The American Cancer Society recommends that women age 40 and older have a screening mammogram (X-ray of the breast) and a clinical breast exam every year. Detecting breast cancer at an early stage greatly improves chances of survival.

The University of Tennessee Medical Center is a 581-bed, not-for-profit academic medical center, which serves as a referral center for Eastern Tennessee, Southeast Kentucky and Western North Carolina. The Medical Center, the region's only Level I Trauma Center, is one of the largest employers in Knoxville. P-Card's.

Today's county government, at least Knox County, takes care of some of their special employees with gas card, county vehicle, a P-card with no limit, alcohol, all the food you can eat at some of the fanciest places in Tennessee, car rentals, airfare, cruises to the Bahamas, free groceries and an account at a local copy store that will let you get cash off of the P-card.

I also thought to work for county government you would have to be a stickler for keeping up with receipts and all the paperwork that goes with it. I was wrong there, too. No need for receipts, nope not at Knox County.

Well maybe I should have went in county government or maybe I should just look for another company that has those same perks. If anyone out there has this type of opportunity for a special person, please give me a call. -Gus

Education Crossroads report to be discussion of call-in radio talk show featuring Dr. Matt Murray

Nashville – Don't miss Dr. Matt Murray, University of Tennessee professor of economics and author of the newly-released Education Crossroads report, as he discusses the connection between Tennessee's economy and our state's education system. Dr. Murray will be the featured guest on 91.9 FM WUOT radio's call-in talk show, Dialogue, Wednesday, March 5 at 1 p.m. EST/12 p.m. CST.

The Education Crossroads report looks at how individuals have the power to influence the future through investing in education as students, individuals, parents and community members. It explores outsourcing, the shifting workforce and competitive world markets.

The show will be aired online in streaming audio at <http://wuot.org>. Show host Matt Shafer Powell will be taking callers at (865) 974-5050.

WUOT-FM is a broadcast service of The University of Tennessee and is served by National Public Radio, American Public Media and Public Radio International. Dialogue is WUOT's monthly call-in program that features issues and guests of interest. The show received Tennessee Associated Press Broadcasters Association's Best Radio Talk Show award in 2007.

For more information about the 'Education Crossroads' report and to participate in online discussion forums, please visit www.educationcrossroads.com.
