Phil man charged after assaulting woman, taking her car

A local man was jailed following an investigation into allegations he assaulted a woman in November while driving and then took her car when she went to tend to her injuries.

According to the warrant, filed by Officer Samuel Harrison, LPD; on November 4, 2007 at approximately 6pm Brad Clowers did commit the act of theft by intentionally depriving a woman of her vehicle without her consent or permission. The woman advised she was physically assaulted by Clowers who was operating her vehicle at the time.

No license

Miguel Angel Villa, 29, of an unknown address was charged with DUI and driving without a license.

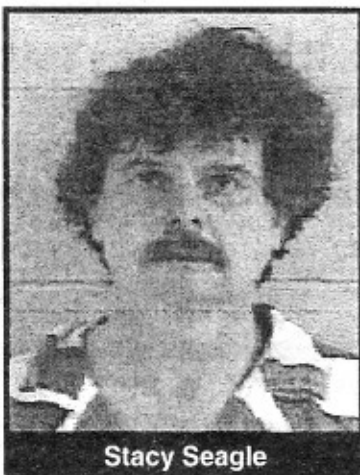

According to the report, Deputy Jason Goddard, LCSD was dispatched to a reckless driver call on I75 and observed the vehicle traveling in the left lane at a slow speed and it crossed the solid yellow line running into the median several times. The vehicle also crossed the centerline.

Numbers

Medical Center is getting a new telephone prefix number. The new prefix means all the numbers at the medical center will now begin with 305 instead of the previously used 544 number.

So if you're used to dialing 544-9000 to reach the main operator at the medical center, you'll now dial 305-9000. The last four digits of all medical center phone numbers remain the same. The new 305 prefix is effective immediately while the 544 prefix will still work through the end of March.

"While all medical center departments are adopting the new 305 prefix, a handful of private physician offices located within the medical center decided to keep their old prefix," explained Harry Watson, vice president of facility operations at UT Medical Center. "We're asking everyone to check with their private physician about their phone numbers. We also encourage everyone to begin using the new 305 prefix right away when calling the medical center to be sure all changes are properly functioning."

Watson says anyone experiencing a problem when dialing

the 305 prefix may call the Office of Facility Operations at (865) 305-9552 or (865) 544-9552 before the end of March so all concerns may be addressed as quickly as possible.

"Ultimately, we believe our switch to the 305 prefix and the upgraded technology we're implementing during this switch will help to enhance the telephone customer service for everyone," Watson said. "This will help us to smoothly and efficiently serve our patients and their families for many years to come."

turning the money.

According to the warrant, on or about November 22, 2007 the victim of Tellico Village hired Stacy Seagle to do some lawn work at her residence to include landscaping, and mole removal. The victim paid Stacy Seagle $600 on November 22, 2007 and then an additional $200 on November 24, 2007.

The victim has made numerous attempts since that date to get Mr. Seagle to complete the work or return her money and he has neither started the work nor returned the money.

The victim also had an exterminator to check her residence and was told she did not have a mole problem to start with.

Lt. Vittatoe spoke to Mr. Seagle on two occasions in December 2007. Seagle told the investigator once he was going to do the work and then later told the officer he had already mailed the victim's money back to her.

Neither of these things have happened and Mr. Seagle has since been unavailable.

Stacy Joe Seagle, 43, of Melanie Lane, Knoxville, was charged with theft over $500. Deputy Mickey Patterson, LCSD made the arrest.

turn and then go straight again and the officer observed the vehicle's reverse lights come on while still moving forward, then heard the engine rev up as the driver must have been in neutral, then it shifted back to drive and the vehicle jumped and went forward again. After stopping the vehicle the driver was identified as Harold Lloyd Hopkins and he had a strong smell of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath and vehicle. After the officer was unable to administer sobriety tasks Hopkins was taken into custody and transported by ambulance to the hospital next door where he refused treatment. Hopkins was transported to the jail and the officer found a blue container that contained several pills without a prescription including methadone and lortab.

Also during the investigation the officer discovered a glass of brownish liquid that was stated to be an alcoholic beverage. Hopkins refused a BAC test.

After arrival at the jail, Hopkins began again complaining of breathing problems and EMS responded.

Harold Lloyd Hopkins, 66, of Matlock Trail, Loudon, was charged with DUI, poss. of sch. II, methadone, poss. of sch. III lortab and implied consent. Officer F. Donth, LCPD made the arrest.
