County Day

The 59th Annual Boys' and Girls' County Day was held Thursday in Loudon County. Some 50+ Students from Lenoir City, Loudon and Greenback High Schools chose county officials to shadow for the day to see what it would be like to fill those shoes.

The annual event is sponsored by American Legion Post 120, Lenoir City Post 70, and Tellico Lake Post 256 in cooperation with Loudon County and School Officials.

This year's event also included remarks from County Mayor Doyle Arp and this year's guest speaker was William Robinson, US Air Force (retired).

Students seemed to really enjoy their assignment for the day and, who knows, those very same kids could possibly be one of our elected officials one day, just like Sheriff Tim Guider who remembered way back when he shadowed then Sheriff Freeman Russell.
