Fundraiser

72 on Saturday, April 26, from 2 -4 pm.

Refreshments will be served.

You are encouraged to bring a few friends and enjoy the fun of the old Tupperware parties we all remember so well. The proceeds will be donated to Kids First, Child Advocacy Center, whose mission is, 'to heal the pain of child abuse and to build safer communities.'

You are encouraged to bring any broken pieces of Tupperware you may have for replacement or credit on a new purchase. Call Mary LeTard, 458-6605 or Norma Racke, 458-9214 for additional information. Good fun, good friends, good cause.

The Child Advocacy Center is Committed to:

Reducing the trauma experienced by children who have been abused.

Providing a child-friendly, safe environment where a child's voice is heard and respected.

Coordinating sexual assault medical examinations and treatment.

Coordinating mental health counseling.

Holding offenders accountable.

Supporting the state-mandated Child Protective Investigative Team as it investigates all reported cases of severe child abuse.

Creating programs and community education focused on prevention and early intervention of child abuse.

Empowering non-offending parents to protect their children.

The CAC was created in partnership with the District Attorney's Office, the Department of Children's Services and law enforcement authorities within the Ninth Judicial District of Tennessee. As a result of the collaborative efforts, an abused child is not subjected to the trauma of multiple interviews, and both the child and protective family members can receive ongoing support services.

Boyd Wayne Bandy, age 58 of Loudon, passed away Friday morning, April 11, 2008 at Park West Hospital. He was a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church. He also had many wonderful memories over the years at New Providence Baptist Church, West Broadway Baptist Church and Poplar Springs Baptist Church. Boyd served his country in Vietnam (1969-1971). Recently in March 2008, he was diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma, which doctors have determined is a result of being exposed to Agent Orange while serving in Vietnam and what took his life so unexpectedly. He was a beloved husband and father that will be very deeply missed. Boyd loved to fish and spend time in the outdoors, especially with his brother and best friend, Rick. He worked at Viskase Corp. for over 25 years. Boyd was very dedicated to his work and had many friends he considered family there. He was preceded in death by his father, Charlie Bandy. Survived by his wife of 35 years, Cleda Bandy; beloved daughters, Kimberly Martin (Tim) of Melbourne, FL, Katina Bandy of Knoxville and Kristi Bandy of Loudon; mother, Willie Mae Bandy of Lenoir City; sister, Wanda Edwards (Eddie) of Loudon; brothers, Tony Bandy (Linda), Fred Bandy (Kelly) all of Lenoir City, Dean Bandy (Linda) of Philadelphia, Rick Bandy (Vontella) of Lenoir City and Ron Sitzler (Gay) of Star, Idaho; along with a host of close aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and many, many dear friends. The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at the Hawkins Chapel. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Hawkins Chapel with Rev. Oley Russell, Rev. Dean Bandy and Rev. Tony Bandy officiating. Interment will follow in the New Providence Cemetery. Hawkins Chapel, 102 B Street, Lenoir City is serving the Bandy family.

Kenneth Lee (Wormie) Brown, age 73 of Lenoir City, passed away Friday, April 11, 2008 at the Loudon Healthcare Center. Kenneth was a member of First Baptist Church Lenoir City. He served over 20 years in Law Enforcement and was a member of the Fraternal Order of Police. Kenneth was a veteran of the U. S. Air Force. He was a member of the Gold Wing Road Riders Association and was a volunteer fireman for Lenoir City. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest and Juanita Jones Brown; sister, Betty Varner and her husband, Bill. Kenneth is survived by his wife of 51 years, Doris Feezell Brown; daughter, Kenda Bivens and husband, Teddy of Lenoir City; son, Randy Brown and wife, Lisa of Loudon, Ernie Brown and wife, Jill of Lenoir City; grandchildren, Holly and Russell Bivens of Lenoir City, Tyler and Zachary Brown of Loudon, Alex and Emily Brown of Lenoir City; brothers, Cecil Brown and Clifford Brown both of Lenoir City; many special cousins. The family will receive friends from 5 to 7 p.m. Monday with funeral services to follow at 7 p.m. in the Click Funeral Home chapel with Rev. Dick DeMerchant officiating. Serving as pallbearers: Jody Norwood, Floyd Morton, Teddy Bivens, Ray Reno, Clifford Brown and Freddie Nelson. Serving as honorary pallbearers: the Ray Reno Sunday School Class. Family and friends will gather at the funeral home by 10:30 a.m. Tuesday and proceed to Loudon County Memorial Gardens for graveside services at 11 a.m. Full military honors will be conferred by the Loudon County Veteran's Honor Guard. Click Funeral Home, 109 Walnut Street, Lenoir City is serving the Brown family.

Linda Lou Lankford, age 47 of Lenoir City, passed away Saturday, April 12, 2008. She attended Sixth Avenue Church of God. Preceded in death by grandmother, Beulah Gentry. Survived by her husband, Hubert Lankford; son, Charles Lankford; step daughters, Christie, Kim and Sherry; mother, Louise Bible all of Lenoir City; brother, Johnny Franklin and wife, Wilma of Strawberry Plains; several loving nieces, nephews and cousins. The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Click Funeral Home. Family and friends will gather at the funeral home by 12:30 p.m. Wednesday and proceed to Pleasant Hill Cemetery for graveside services at 1 p.m. with Rev. Fred Cook officiating. Click Funeral Home, 109 Walnut Street, Lenoir City is serving the Lankford family.
