Tindell

Amanda Ann Tindell and she performed poorly on sobriety tasks and a check showed her license to be revoked.

Tindell admitted to taking Xanax the prior day and was confused about where she was and where she going.

Tindell also refused a BAC test and was found to have 2 prior DUI convictions.

Amanda Ann Tindell, 23, of Lonas Drive, Knoxville, was charged with DUI 3rd, driving on revoked, and implied consent. Trooper SF "Hawk" Holcomb III, THP made the arrest.

McDonald

Jerry then got into this vehicle and the victim thought he was leaving. Jerry put his vehicle in reverse and slung gravel as he was going backwards.

The victim then started to walk back into the house and Jerry put his vehicle in drive and began to move forward quickly, slinging gravel going toward the victim. Jerry struck his brother with the front of his vehicle, knocking the man on the hood and then onto the ground.

After Jerry struck his brother with the vehicle he fled the scene.

The victim had road rash on his left elbow and on his left upper thigh due to the contact with the vehicle.

Sgt. JJ Wiggins and Corporal Ernie Brown located Jerry and the vehicle on Corinth Road. There were smudge marks on the hood of the vehicle that matched the statements given by the victim and another witness.

Jerry A. McDonald, 58, of Corinth Church Road, Loudon, was charged with aggravated assault by domestic violence. Deputy Jason Goddard, LCSD made the arrest.

Warren

Inside the bag was a dictionary (which was actually a hidden compartment) and inside was a small semi-automatic pistol with a full magazine, but an empty chamber.

Mr. Warren does not have a carry permit.

Also found was seven individual bags, each with a hard rock like substance believed to be crack cocaine and 2 packs of multi colored baggies commonly used to package illegal narcotics and a small green scale used to weigh narcotics.

After being advised of his rights Warren
