Boat

According to records, Ed Heilman, Elohi Way, told Lt. Investigator Jeff Vittatoe, LCSD, someone had poured the water into the oil while the boat was docked in a slip at Tagaloo Marina in Tellico Village and that over $8000 in damages were incurred to the 150 hp Mercury outboard motor on the boat.

Heilman reported the vandalism had to have occurred sometime between April 21 and May 7 and advised the motor was destroyed by the water.

Holmes

Road in Lenoir City. Mr. Holmes is on the faculty at Sweetwater High School and the victim is a student.

Upon meeting on Sugarlimb Road the minor did get into Mr. Holmes' vehicle and the two then had sexual intercourse inside Mr. Holmes vehicle. This is supported by statements from the teen and also Mr. Holmes. It is also supported by text messages.

Cedrick Lamont Holmes, 31, of Fore Drive, Loudon, was charged with aggravated statutory rape. Corporal Daniel Ferguson, LCSD made the arrest at the jail.

Holmes was also charged in Sweetwater with similar charges. Special to the Daily Edition from the Monroe County Buzz: A 31-year-old "inschool attendant" was charged with one count of aggravated statutory rape on Wednesday and a second count of sexual battery by an authority figure on Thursday.

Williams Daniel Thompson, 18, of Pardue Lane, Lenoir City was charged with domestic violence.

According to the report, Deputy Deland, LCSD was dispatched to Brookview Road on an unwanted guest call. Upon arrival, the officer spoke to Thompson who stated a friend dropped him off so he could talk to his girlfriend and she locked him out.

Deputies then spoke with the victim and she stated she was 16 and he came over uninvited and being violent towards her.

Deputies then went in the house and saw broken glass on the floor and a chimney broom laying on the floor. The teen said when she asked Thompson to leave he grabbed her by the shirt and sated he was not leaving until they settled things. He told her that if he left he would make her life a living hell.

She tired to get her mace but was unable to use it. When she was able to get away from Thompson, she grabbed an empty bottle and threw it at him. She then grabbed a chimney broom and was able to get him out of the house. She locked the door and called 911.

Deputy Jenkins then called the teen's mother and she stated Thompson had been sneaking over late at night trying to make contact with her daughter. She advised she has already told Thompson not to be contacting her daughter by any means.

After being booked in, William Daniel Thompson was told not to contact the victim and still did and was cut off by authorities.

Now taking applications for several positions. Must be able to work days, nights, weekends and holidays. Apply in person. No phone calls please. Serious inquiries only. Dinner Bell Restaurant, Hwy. 321, Lenoir City

Cpl. Chad Estes, LCSD, reported he spoke with a Clay Hollows Road, Philadelphia man who said he noticed a gray Honda Accord parked at his neighbor's house and when he went to see who it was he found a woman he identified to police as the owner's daughter-in-law.

The woman reportedly had taken a television and entertainment system from the residence and when she left the neighbor went and called the homeowner, Laura Truman of Morris-town.

Truman reportedly told the man to call the police because no one had permission to be at the residence or taking anything from it, not even her daughter-in-law.

The officer reported he spoke to Truman by phone after he arrived at the scene and Truman told him the same thing and said the residence was supposed to be locked. He checked the front door and found it was unlocked and reported he secured it for Truman.

No other information was available at the time of the report.
