they could get government money without the government knowing about it.

Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSD, reported he spoke with a 77 year old Ootsima Way woman and her 76 year old husband who said someone had called them four times and told them they could get $400 to $500 from the government and wouldn't know about it.

The couple told the officer two males and two females had made the calls and told them about he money.

The lawman reported the couple does not have caller ID and he dialed *69, but the calls had been made from a restricted number.
