Explosives

Deputy Marty Stanley, LCSD, was dispatched to Hall Street where he spoke with a woman who said she asleep Sunday night and was awakened by a loud explosion outside. She went to see what had happened and found a device had been exploded outside her residence.

The woman further reported she found another explosive device still intact inside her mailbox.

The lawman noted both the exploded and unexploded devices were collected and turned over to C.S.I. for investigation.

Possible suspects were identified to police.

Vandalism

cords, Deputy Steve Helm, LCSD, was dispatched to Stonebrook Subdivision, Stonebrook Lane, where he spoke with Joseph Flanary of Clayton Homes. Flanary advised someone had broken out glass windows and doors on nine homes for sale in the subdivision.

Shrubby and landscaping at the homes also was pulled up and taken.

Possible suspects were identified to police.

Burglary

Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSD, was dispatched to a Antioch Church Road East residence where he spoke with Malinda and Jonathan Kilvy who advised they returned home to find a screen had been taken off a front window and left lying on the ground. The couple said they checked their home and found several items missing including a big screen HD television, and an X-box with several games.

The officer noted the point of entry was the front window and a toy box kept under the window was damaged in the break-in.

Police Beat

Juan L. Gonzalez, 33, of Ferry St. Loudon, was charged with DUI and driving on suspended.

According to the report, Officer Jeremy Dishner, LCPD observed a vehicle on the wrong side of the roadway on Kelly Lane, nearly striking another vehicle head on and stopped it.

Gonzalez was the driver and he had extremely slurred speech and an odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person. A check of his license showed them to be suspended.

A BAC was taken at the hospital.

Micah Paul Richardson, 28, of Elmwood Drive, Knoxville, was charged with failure to appear.

Officer Jason Butler, LCPD made the arrest.

Officer Blake Norman, LPD observed a white Econoline van sitting on the far side of the parking lot of the Shell station in Loudon at 3:45am and reported he approached the vehicle to check the welfare of the occupants.

The officer identified the driver as Eric Ramirez-Hernandez. There were also nine other occupants in the vehicle. The officer asked for identification from them all.

They all presented what appeared to be fake resident alien cards and social security cards.

While employed as a police officer for the last two and a half years, Officer Norman has learned how to examine certain documents such as social security cards in order to determine their validity. The social security card Mr. Gomez presented lacked the identification marks that all valid social security cards contain, which led the officer to believe the document was a forgery, which all possessed to defraud by appearing to be eligible to work in the United States of America, which they are not.
