Snyder

Corporal Estes placed Snyder into custody and upon checking with the homeowner, several drawers in the bedroom had been opened as well as a jewelry box.

Brent Allen Snyder, 25, of Caldwell Road, Loudon was charged with aggravated burglary. CSI Investigator Charles Cosner, LCSD filed the charges and made the arrest.

Gus

Where is our Abe Lincoln or a Thomas Jefferson? They are still at home and not in politics anymore, that's where they are at and I really can't say that I blame them.

Our whole political process is the media picking who they want to run, not a stand up normal American. These jokers that are in this political arena have been bred for just that media purpose.

They live in a separate world than what you or I live in. Oh they may say they came from us, but that's nothing more than B.S. As I get older, the more I see this and to tell you the truth, I hate what our country is turning into.

Think I'm going fishing on election day, I'm tired of voting for the lesser of the two evils. This country is the greatest nation of all mankind, and look at who we get to vote for, tsk tsk.. -Gus driver coming into the city was reported.

Key

Bobby Eugene Key Jr., 37, of Hill Street, Loudon, was charged with DUI 1st.

According to the report, Sgt. Brian Jenkins LPD received a call in reference to a possible drunk driver on Hwy 11 coming into the city from Monroe County.

The vehicle was located and a female passenger was not wearing a seat belt and the vehicle was stopped.

The occupants were given a warning for the seat belts and the driver, Mr. Key Jr. had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and registered .28% on the intoximeter. Sgt. Brian Jenkins, LPD made the arrest.
