Williams

other women.

Stephen Jerrold Williams, 33, of 4th Ave. Lenoir City was charged with assault by domestic violence. According to the report, Officer F. Donth, LCPD was dispatched to a physical domestic in progress. Upon arrival the officer observed other officers securing the subject.

The living room floor at the home was covered in glass, fish tank pebbles and other miscellaneous items from atop the tables.

After securing and removing Williams from the residence a female stated she and Stephen had been arguing over other women calling him. When she began packing his things he became angry and threw a fish tank into the flat screen television that was hanging on the wall.

The woman said she ran upstairs and locked herself in the bedroom while calling 911. Williams then came upstairs and was squirting a bottle of lighter fluid and kicked open the door. She advised she was unsure of his intentions, however he stopped once he realized she was on the phone with the police.

Both stated no physical contact was made but Williams did break, damage, and violently throw things and placed the victim in fear of her safety. Officer F. Donth, LCPD made the arrest.

Fishing

his normal fishing partner, J.C. Wiggin-

Usually at our tournaments, 15-20 boats is a real good turnout, but on this foggy morning I was shocked to see how many people had showed up. There were 200 boats at the ramp and a waiting line to launch, so I pulled over onto the grass and started walking to the ramp.

Lo' and behold, there is Walter arguing with a little scrawny fellow. Lord, at the arguing, seems that a big bass fishing club, FLOW, was scheduled to have their biggest bass tournament of the year here at our ramp and Walter wasn't about to share his glory with anyone... -Gus
