Honors

Four Local Law Enforcement Officers participated in the Barrett Firearms Annual Shooting Tournament that was held in Nashville on May 31st. Barrett Firearms of Murfreesboro is the leading Tactical Rifle Manufacturer in the United States Military. Owner, Ronnie Barrett sponsored the 18 Team Event. Teams consisted of individuals from Smith & Wesson, Barrett Firearms, Charlie Daniels Band, Louis Mandrell, On-Target and various Law Enforcement Agencies from across Tennessee.

Leon Shields from Loudon County Sheriff's Office; Kenny Ridings, Bobby Lankford, and Bill Evans from Loudon Police Department took First Place in Team Events at the Tournament. These officers were members of the Instructional Concepts Team which is a Lenoir City Company that offers specialized training and services to the private and industrial area (www.instructionalconcepts.org).

This tournament is an annual event and all proceeds benefit the American Cancer Society. Proceeds from this annual event aid in the research and cure of one of America's deadliest diseases. For information on donations to the American Cancer Society, you may contact 1-800-ACS-2345.

Couple

Sgt. Jimmey Wiggins, LCSD, responded to the business just after 2:30 a.m. where a clerk advised a man and woman had come in and the female was persistent in having him help her find a C.B. antenna. While doing so, the man she was with took a Cobra N1av 500 navigation system from the cabinet.

The clerk described the woman as about 5'5" with brown hair who appeared to be in her 40's and was wearing blue pajamas and the man as an older male, about 290 lbs., with brown hair who was missing his front teeth and was wearing jeans and a black shirt.

The loss was valued at $347.

Police Beat

Alison C. Harris, 37, of Franklin Estates, Greenback, was charged with assault by domestic violence.

According to the report, Deputy Shane Ezell, LCSD was dispatched to a physical domestic and upon arrival observed a male subject standing in the garage of the residence. Upon making contact with the victim he reported Ms. Harris had become upset and tried to damage his motorcycle and other property inside the garage. While attempting to stop her she struck him in the head with a mop.

Ms. Harris reported he was verbally abusive and had assaulted her.

The officer spoke to a witness at the scene and he stated Ms. Harris had gotten out of the car on their way home and was brought to the residence by a Maryville City Officer. There she became very upset and started yelling, cursing and trying to damage the victim's motorcycle and other belongings. Both were very intoxicated. Deputy Shane Ezell, LCSD made the arrest.

Joseph Willard Elliott, 40, of Hwy 72, Loudon, was charged with driving on suspended.

According to the report, Deputy Jerramie

Bowen LCSD stopped a vehicle for suspicion of DUI and upon making contact found Elliott to have a suspended license. Deputy Jerramie Bowen, LCSD made the arrest.

Arnold Ray Stringer, 33, of Vale St., Loudon, was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia and driving on suspended.

According to the report, Officer Brendan Deboer, LPD observed a red vehicle with a driver not wearing a seatbelt and stopped it.

A check showed Stringer to have a suspended license and a search resulted in the location of a straw used to ingest oxycontin through the nose. Officer Brendan Deboer, LPD made the arrest.

Derrick Lee Morris, 22, of Mimosa Circle, Maryville, was charged with domestic violence assault.

According to the report, Deputy Brandon Dixon, LCSD responded to a 911 hang up call and upon arrival spoke to the victim and she reported Derrick Morris twisted her arm and pushed her against a wall.

Morris also broke the victim's cell phone. Deputy Brandon Dixon, LCSD made the arrest.

Deputy Shane Ezell, LCSD, reported he was dispatched to Axley's Chapel Road where he spoke with Wanda Davis who advised she went to her 2001 Pontiac Grand Prix, which was parked in her attached garage, and found the interior lights on. Upon checking, she discovered someone had broken out the door lock and handle and stolen her wallet off the front seat.

The officer reported the window had been struck several times with what appeared to be a rock, but it was not busted. The value of the loss was unknown at the time of the report.

Police Beat

Barry Allen Waters, 37, of Murray St., Spring City, was charged with DUI 1st, driving on suspended 3rd offense.

According to the report, Trooper Carey

Hixson, THP stopped a vehicle at a sobriety checkpoint. The driver, Mr. Waters had a 12 pack in the passenger seat and an empty 40-ounce beer in the back seat.

Waters was very unsteady on his feet and had an obvious odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person. Trooper Carey Hixson, THP made the arrest.
