Down & Dirty

The Annual East Tennessee Epilepsy Foundation Mud Volleyball Tournament was held in Knoxville at Chilhowee Park. The event featured 47 teams, of which, Loudon County's Own "Law and Disorder", finished 6th overall. The team consisted of District Attorney General Russell Johnson, Lt. Jeff Vittatone, 9th DTF John Sanchez, Angie Housley, Cheryl and Jamie Lively, Sgt. Jeff Russell, Kristina Gibbs, Detective Chris White, and the Captain, Disorder himself, Dan Bell. Our alternates were Sam Lively and Jona-of dirt into mud, dang overachievers. Knox County Sheriff JJ Jones watched in awe event and the proceeds benefit those who suffer from epilepsy in our area as

Down & Dirty have a blast playing volleyball for the East Tennessee Epilepsy Foundation than Bell who filled in when needed and also played to assist other teams in their quest.

It was a grueling day in the sun, the heat and especially the mud. Normally used for tractor pulls and other dirt events the Chilhowee Park arena became a blooming muddy mess thanks to the extraneous effort of the Knoxville Fire Department who throughout the day, continued their quest to make every spot as his Department team was beaten handily at the hands of L&D. Throughout the day teams came and teams went, including Knoxville Police Department, as the day turned into what seemed to be becoming a historic placing of the proverbial crown upon our team. But alas, a traveling band of mud misfits, all professional we're sure, narrowly defeated L&D due to time expiring, landing the team of Law & Disorder in the 6th position.

The foundation was able to raise well over $10,000 in this years well as the rest of East Tennessee. Next year's event will be even bigger and better and it's a great cause for just getting a little dirty.

inside a house that had been sold out of his family about a year earlier.

Cole Brandon Winner, 23, of Howard Road, Loudon, was charged with criminal trespassing. According to the report, Corporal Chad Estes, LCSD was dispatched to Hickory Creek Road Lenoir City to a suspicious vehicle setting in the driveway of the residence. A neighbor called and said that no one was living at that residence and the owner was in California.

When the deputy arrived he found a blue vehicle sitting beside the residence and looked in the front windows. No one was inside and the officer went to the back door and it was cracked open.

Corporal Estes then entered the residence and observed a male and female coming down the hallway identified as Cole Winner and Susan Lee Anderson. Neither subjects owned the residence nor they did know who even owned the residence.

The Winner family used to own it but it was sold a year ago. The owner gave no one permission to be there. Cole had met the female Susan online about three days ago and Cole left his car at that location and told the female he owned the house and they could go there. Corporal Chad Estes, LCSD made the arrest.
