Bust

Nationally recognized K9 units with LCSD who recently received numerous awards have received what is referred to as a "Street Trophy" among law enforcement. This time K9 Draga landed several pounds of marijuana when the Narcotics Division of the Loudon County Sheriff's Department along with the patrol division served a search warrant at 2404 Hickory Creek Road Residence in Lenoir City at the home of James Rodney Rehders. Prior to searching the location K9 Draga was deployed in the house. Draga alerted in several areas in the house and a search of the areas produced several large amounts of marijuana, marijuana paraphernalia, and US Currency.

Items found in James Rehders bedroom was approximately 12 to 13 ounces of marijuana, postal scales, 4 pistols (some loaded), US currency, 2 pills identified as Adderall (schedule II drug) and other drug paraphernalia.

Found in the kitchen was approximately 17 grams of marijuana, another set of postal scales. While Deputy Shane Ezell was searching the outside of the house in a wooded area he located a gray box with approximately 3 more pounds of marijuana packaged in the same manner as the marijuana found in Rehders' bedroom. Rehders claimed ownership of the marijuana and drug paraphernalia located in and around the house.

Participating in the operation was Sgt. Billy Hall, Investigator AJ Yokley, Capt. Shane Ezell, Sgt. Jeff Russell, LCSD.
