Man charged after putting children in danger during chase

Deputy Jerramie Bowen, LCSD tried to make a traffic stop on a vehicle for speeding. Upon turning around on the vehicle it then sped up on Hwy 72. The deputy then turned his emergency equipment on and the vehicle tried to make the turn at Marble Bluff Road and the vehicle slid into the grass almost hitting the stop sign leaving yard marks in the road crossing into oncoming traffic. At that time the vehicle then turned into an abandoned driveway.

The driver of the vehicle then switched with the passenger and at that point Deputy Bowen and Deputy Chad Petty took the passenger into custody and the driver. Both were identified as Timothy Graves Jr. and Ashley Demilio.

Also in the vehicle were two small children, ages 1 and 3. The children were placed in danger during the chase.

Timothy Ray Graves Jr., 21, of Paint Rock Valley Road, Philadelphia, was charged with driving on suspended, felony reckless endangerment of a child x2 and felony reckless endangerment.

Deputy Jerramie Bowen, LCSD made the arrest. Demilio was not charged in the incident.

Vehicle

Chris Bowen, LCSD, she had been up until approximately 3:00 a.m. and didn't hear or see anything, but when another relative arrived at the home it was noticed there was something hanging out the driver's side door of a 2001 Ford Ranger parked at the home.

Buckner advised further inspection revealed the driver's side back window of the extended cab truck had been broken out and all the stereo equipment had been removed from the vehicle along with about 80 compact discs in a CD case.

The loss was valued at $2200. Possible suspects were identified to police.

Thank You

the 21st of July when our very own Winston, a registered Bichon Frise puppy, jumped out of our car in the Wal-Mart parking lot. People from all walks of life, stopped and were trying to help us catch our Winston. We had just gotten him from my husband's son and granddaughter, he hadn't had time to become accustomed to us, or be able to recognize us. He loved children but was afraid of most adults.

Once his fast little legs got past and around all the people that had stopped to help us. Winston then ran across the four lanes of traffic, in a thunderstorm, with my husband & I, and lots of other people trying to help in tow. To make a long story short, our darling ran into the woods and we lost him.

For six agonizing days, we called everyone in Lenoir City, TN trying to get help locating our little darling. Everyone we talked to was so nice but he was not to be found.

On Sunday around noon, our little darling was spotted on the side of the road, his demise evident.

Monday, we finally got a call from a veterinarian in Virginia Beach that he had been found.

Eagerly, I called the number of the woman who had found him, only to find out that our little darling had expired the day before on Sunday. This woman that had found our darling had buried him in a pet cemetery behind her church of worship, where he had gotten hit by a car. He has a headstone there labeled with his name on it; Winston Moniz.

Please print this in your newspaper, so that we can properly say, "Thank you!" to all the people in your area that had been searching for our little angel for the whole week. They know who they are.

Thanks again,
Paul and Margie Moniz

matched an earlier call of a possible drunk driver. The officer observed the vehicle crossing the lines and activated his lights and siren. The driver went through a red light and increased his speed and began to pass numerous vehicle with speeds over 70mph.

The vehicle continued down Martel Road still passing vehicles in no passing zones and blind curves and speeding.

The vehicle continued until it stopped in a driveway on Rancho Drive.

The driver was identified as Jonathan Eugene Joiner, aka Sonny, 51, of Rancho Drive, Lenoir City.

During a pat down the officer found 18 pink pills identified as Xanax and a check of Joiner's license showed them to be revoked.

Joiner refused any and all BAC tests.

Jonathan Eugene Joiner, 51, was charged with DUI by drugs and/or alcohol, driving on revoked license, evading lawful arrest and possession of schedule IV narcotics.

Deputy Estes made the arrest.

Records

Roy Hawk is the new record holder of the gizzard shad he caught while fishing on the South Fork of the Holston River. Hawk, from Knoxville, caught a 3 lb., gizzard shad that was 17 3/4 inches long on April 3. The previous record was set by Hawk's good friend, W. Powell Patridge Sr., from the same stretch of the river just six days earlier and this fished weighed 1 lb., 13 oz.

Jimmy A. Filson, from Dickson, is the new record holder for the silver redhorse. Filson caught a 4 lb., 8 oz. silver redhorse that was 37 inches long on the Harpeth River above the Highway 70 bridge in Cheatham County on June 21. The old record 3 lbs., 7 oz. was set by James E. Moore on Nolichucky River in 2002.

The lake trout was by Jack Forbes on Watauga Lake in Carter County. Forbes, a resident of Elizabethton, landed his 22 lb., 2oz. trophy that was 37 inches in length while trolling the lake near Big Island on July 3. The previous record was 20 lb., 1 oz. on the same reservoir in 1994.

The criteria to be considered for a state record fish along with the new record application and instructions, state records and fishing license information are in the 2008 TWRA Tennessee Fishing Guide. Information is also available on the TWRA website.

Police Beat

James Daniel Johnson, 34, of C Street, Lenoir City was charged with driving on suspended and failure to appear on compliance court.

According to the report, Deputy Michael Watkins, LCSD observed a vehicle with Mr. Johnson driving and had prior knowledge his license was suspended and stopped him.

A check confirmed Johnson to have a suspended license for failure to satisfy citations.
