commit theft and permanently deprive the business of money.

During the robbery, Hampton brandished a deadly weapon, a blue knife, towards the clerk and demanded money from the cash register.

Hampton then pushed the clerk, took the money from the cash register, and fled the business premises on a black 2003 Yamaha motorcycle.

Officer Samuel Harrison, LPD attempted to stop Hampton as he fled the area northbound on I-75. Hampton refused to stop and instead attempted to elude arrest by traveling at an extremely high rate of speed, leading Officer Harrison and Sgt. Brian Jenkins along with Corporal Chad Estes, LCSD and Officer B. Gentry, LCPD on a high speed pursuit that ended on Cedar Park Drive in Lenoir City where Hampton was taken into custody after a short foot chase.

A check through NCIC revealed his license to be revoked for DUI.

Kenneth Jacob Hampton, 19, of Cedar Park Drive, Lenoir City was charged with aggravated robbery, evading arrest and driving on revoked license. Officer Samuel Harrison, LPD made the arrest.
