way 321 was charged with possession of a legend drug without a prescription.

Preston's boyfriend, Decker Hicks, 28, was charged with simple possession of marijuana.

The charges and suspension reportedly came after a parent who had come to pick his children found Preston on the back porch with Hicks who was smoking marijuana. Other day care workers also were present and the children inside are alleged to have been left in the care of a seven year old.

When questioned by police, Hicks was asked if he had any drugs on his person and he reportedly produced a small amount of marijuana.

Preston also was asked if she had any drugs in her possession and she reportedly produced percocet and xanax. Preston had a prescription for the percocet, but not the xanax.

Records indicate

DHS placed the day care center on probation in March after repeatedly being cited for failure to adequately supervise the children in its charge after workers reported finding unsupervised children at the day care on four separate occasions. The day care also has been cited for failure to maintain proper first aid certification, failure to keep an operable fire alarm system, failure to follow transportation rules, failure to keep rooms where children play safe of hazards, and improper child/adult ratios.

Discovery Depot opened in March, 2004.
