victim does have an active order of protection with no contact against Misty Branum. Upon arrival of Officer Mark Maxwell Misty Branum was found to be inside the residence around the victim.

Misty Danielle Branum, 28, of Taylor Drive, Lenoir City, was charged with violation of order of protection. Officer Mark Maxwell, LCPD made the arrest.

Vandalism

vandalized sometime during the night.

Deputy Shane Ezell, LCSD, reported he spoke with Rick Taylor who said he'd heard a noise outside around 2:00 a.m. but did not look out, and then when he went outside just before 7:00 a.m. he found someone had egged three cars in his driveway.

Taylor further reported the vehicles also had been sprayed with Silly String and obscenities had been written on the windows with a window marker.

The officer noted he found a Wal Mart bag on the premises that contained three used cans of Silly String, two window markers and several egg cartons.

Taylor reportedly told the officer he had no idea who may have committed the crime. The value of the damage was unknown at the time of the report.

Tools

According to reports, Harry Vredevelt told Lt. Investigator Jeff Vittatoo, LCSD, he discovered numerous power tools had been stolen from a job site located along Washita Lane in Tellico Village and he believes a man whom he identified may have taken them after being fired from the job.

Vredevelt advised the missing tools consisted of Bosch jig saw, a Makita sawzall, a Skil circular saw and a Rigid nail gun, all valued at $700.

Chickens

were neighborhood dogs. The chicken coop was nailed to a fence and the coop had been torn off the fence.

The officer reported one of the doors on the coop also had been torn off and the two chickens were killed during the attack.

The value of the loss and damaged was unknown at the time of the report.

Police Beat

Daniel Casmire Vasquez, 40, of A Street, Lenoir City was charged with driving on revoked 2nd.

According to the report, Sgt. Eddie Range, LCPD stopped Vasquez because he had prior knowledge Vasquez has no license and when stopped Vasquez was found to have a revoked license with one prior conviction.

Mark Anthony Green, 44, of Pennsylvania Avenue,

Etowah, was charged with driving on revoked 3rd.

Deputy Michael Watkins, LCSD stopped Green due to him matching the description of someone possibly involved in a purse snatching in Roane County.

A check showed Green to have a revoked license with two prior convictions.

Galvan

Hwy 72 and crossed the centerline and struck another vehicle head on. Mr. Galvan was transported to UT Medical Center where he admitted to drinking 6 beers. After running Galvan's name and date of birth through 911 there was no record of a drivers license. After arresting Mr. Galvan at UT Medical Center and transporting him back to Loudon County Jail the officer again ran his name and date of birth for a license check and it came back as being revoked for DUI with 2 prior DUI convictions on his license.

Vicente Mora Galvan, 24, of Maremont Parkway, Loudon, was charged with DUI 3rd, and driving on revoked. Officer Bennie Houser, LPD made the arrest.

Jewelry

Dudala Way, told Deputy Mickey Patterson, LCSD, she had placed her necklace and ring on her master bathroom counter to clean them around September 2 and the jewelry was still in place the next morning. Around 1:00 p.m. a man who contracts work for Brinks Security Service came to work on their security system and was in several rooms in the house, including the master bath.

Bruner said that on September 7 she discovered the jewelry was missing and another resident in the home said no one had been in their residence except for the security system man.

The stolen jewelry was described a silver chain with a gold opal pendant that has a diamond in the center and a ladies ring, all valued at $12,650.

The suspect was identified to police through his business card.

Police Beat

Joseph Louis Barish, 26, of Peterson Road, Farragut, was charged with failure to appear. Cpl. Daniel Ferguson LCSD made the arrest.
