Man charged with theft over $1000

According to the warrant, on or about November 27 2008 a female had her van at her sister's residence on Hwy 11 in Lenoir City. The sister reported the van had been stolen between 12am and 7:30pm and was a 1996 Plymouth Caravan, white in color. The sister advised her daughter had taken the vehicle.

Upon further investigation it was learned that Kevin (see Garner pg. 4)

Money, check missing

Authorities were called to investigate the theft of money after a local woman noticed it missing over a short period of time.

Records indicate, on Saturday Deputy Deland, LCSD was dispatched to a Davis Ferry Road address on a reported theft of money. Ashley Kerr stated throughout the week, she has noticed money being taken from different coin jars. On

(see Missing pg. 6)

Burglary

A local man called authorities when he returned home to find his door kicked in and over $2000 in personal property missing.

According to records filed by Deputy Charles Butler, LCSD Mr. Wesley Jackson of Meadow Road West, Greenback advised when he returned home on Monday around 11:00 p.m. he noticed his back door had been kicked open and several items were missing from his residence.

(see Burglary pg. 6)

Identity theft

A Loudon County woman called authorities when she received a phone call informing her she had opened her seventeenth credit account, which she said she had not done.

According to reports Deputy Deland, LCSD was dispatched to Ranch Road in Loudon to make a report of identity theft. Ms. Wendy Taylor stated she received a call from a store credit agent. The agent advised her she has opened her

Resolve to Quit Smoking in the New Year

Nashville, - New Year's Day is the most popular day each year for deciding to adopt healthier habits, including quitting smoking. While quitting can be difficult, it can be done, and is easier to accomplish with professional support. Tennesseans have a much greater chance of quitting for good and achieving their New Year's resolution with help from the Tennessee

Tobacco QuitLine, 1-800-QUIT-NOW, a free cessation coaching service available to all adult state residents.

"We know how hard it can be to break addiction to tobacco, and we want all Tennessee smokers to know they don't have to go it alone," said Health Commissioner Susan R. Cooper, MSN, RN. "The QuitLine is available when they're ready to start the quitting process, and is a valuable tool to help them accomplish the goal of living tobacco-free."

Resolve

The Tennessee Tobacco QuitLine offers personalized support for Tennessee residents who want to quit smoking and/or other tobacco products by connecting them with trained quit coaches to guide them through the quitting process. Callers will receive ongoing professional coaching via individually scheduled calls with a quit coach personally assigned to them. This convenient and confidential service is free and available to Tennessee residents in both English and Spanish.

The service is also available for the deaf and hard-of-hearing at TTY: 1-877-559-3816.

QuitLine callers also have complimentary access to relapse prevention techniques, printed resource materials, information on nicotine replacement therapies and other services to aid in the quitting process.

Smokers who quit can greatly reduce their risk of developing several types of smoking-related cancer, emphysema, heart disease and stroke. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention offers these helpful quit tips:

1. Don't smoke any number or any kind of cigarette. Smoking fewer cigarettes is still harmful, and smoking "low-tar, low-nicotine" cigarettes usually does little good. Nicotine is so addictive, if you switch to lower-nicotine brands you'll likely just puff harder, longer and more often on each cigarette. The only safe choice is to quit completely.

2. Write down why you want to quit. Do you want to:

- Feel in control of your life?
- Have better health?
- Set a good example for your children?
- Protect your family from breathing other people's smoke?

Really wanting to quit smoking is very important to the success you will have in quitting. Smokers who live after a heart attack are the most likely to quit for good; they're very motivated. Find a reason for quitting before you have no choice.

3. Know that it will take effort to quit using tobacco. Nicotine is habit forming. Half of the battle in quitting is realizing you need to quit. This knowledge will help you cope with the symptoms of withdrawal that can occur, such as bad moods and intense craving to smoke, chew or dip.

4. Half of all adult smokers have quit, so you can too. That's the good news. There are millions of people alive today who have learned to face life without tobacco products. For staying healthy, quitting is the best step you can take.

5. Get help if you need it. The Tennessee Tobacco QuitLine can help. Call today.

The Tennessee Tobacco QuitLine (1-800-QUIT-NOW or 1-800-784-8669) is a statewide toll-free telephone tobacco cessation treatment program made possible through the Tennessee Department of Health. There is no charge to callers for services. Hours are Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. CST.

Prowler

Scott Garner did ask a 17-year-old juvenile runaway to help steal the van. On December 2, 2008 the van and the juvenile runaway were found on Jim Wolf Road in Knoxville.

After Detective Sgt. Patrick Upton, LCSD Criminal Investigation Division (CID) received information she could be located there Mr. Garner was also found. Investigation also showed Mr. Garner had left personal papers of his in the stolen van. Garner knowingly and willingly deprived the victim of her property that was stolen.

Kevin Scott Garner, 19, of Flenwood Way, Knoxville, was charged with theft over $1000. Deputy Brian Smith, LCSD made the arrest.

Garner

She said the voice sounded like it was in her downstairs living room.

When the female went downstairs she could hear the man's voice outside her living room window and when she went to the window she saw a white male, about 5'11" in height, short dark hair with a goatee, and wearing gray sweat pants and hoodie.

The woman stated the man was talking on a walkie talkie or cell phone. The man then went to her back door and started to open it, when he saw her he ran off towards Highway 70. He tried to hide between the other condos.

Later that day there was a breaking and entering that occurred on Wilkerson Lane. The suspect was apprehended and had the same description the female gave to describe her prowler.

No other information was available at the time of the report.

Missing

this day, she went to her safe to get her "IRA" check. When she opened the safe the check was missing.

Kerr advised there have been several people over at the residence this week.

Suspects were named. The case is under investigation.

Burglary

The items missing, valued at $2200, were described as a Playstation 3, twelve PS3 games, two PS3 controllers, two Mossburg shotguns, and two bolt action rifles.

A possible suspect was named and evidence was gathered at the scene. The investigation is ongoing.

Identity

seventeenth credit account and wanted to make sure she was aware of it.

Ms. Taylor told the agent she was unaware of opening any credit account through anyone. The victim further investigated the accounts and found out a person in Memphis has used her social security number and opened several credit card accounts, spending over $15000.

Police Beat

Deborah M. Walker, 44, of Sunnyside Road, Philadelphia, was charged with driving on suspended.

According to the report, Officer Dewayne Williams, LPD observed a vehicle with the registration not visible and stopped it.

Walker was the driver and she was found to have a suspended license for failure to satisfy citations. Officer Dewayne Williams, LPD made the arrest.
