Horoscopes

Be stressing you out a bit, but it's something you can deal with -- in fact, it's something you can profit from, if you play your cards right! Open yourself up to new viewpoints.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

It's tough for you to deal with partnership today -- in any of its meanings. You may have to put off dealing with your mate, ask for time to think in business or otherwise duck certain responsibilities.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

It's a great day for starting new things or signing new agreements of all kinds -- anything in which you're working with (or for) someone should do nicely. Enter a new partnership, if possible.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

You're feeling pretty great, but you need to resist the temptation to overdo it. Things are more complex than they appear and you should try to slow down until you've figured out the limits.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

You're spending more time thinking than acting today, but that keeps you on your toes and might help get you ready for bigger things to come. It's a good day for you to make big plans.

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

Home repair or neighbor problems may keep your mind occupied for much of the day, but you can deal with it as long as you're forthright. Enlist support from folks you don't know well.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

Share some quiet time with your sweetheart today -- or get yourself a little closer to acquiring said sweetheart! Your romantic energy is bubbling up in a fun way, so it's time to use it!

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

It doesn't matter if you're feeling stressed out or let down for some reason -- buying new stuff is not the answer! You may need to lock away your credit cards to remove the temptation to buy.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

You've got plenty of great energy today and might want to spend at least some of it making or selecting art. Your aesthetic sense is stronger than ever and even simple decoration can be quite stimulating!

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Instead of rolling your eyes and getting frustrated, try to give other folks the benefit of the doubt and just wait while they catch up with you. Things should feel a lot better in the near future!

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Fairness is key to getting your way today -- you need to appeal to people's basic sense of right and wrong. Of course, if you can't make that case for some reason, you may be better off trying something else anyway.

Reelfoot Lake State Park Is Site For First TWRC Meeting of 2009

Nashville, - The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission will hold its first meeting of 2009 on Wednesday-Thursday, Jan. 21-22, at Reelfoot Lake State Park near Tiptonville. It marks the second consecutive year that the TWRC's January meeting will be held at the Reelfoot Lake State Park.

The TWRC meeting begins at 1 p.m. on Jan. 21 with the committee meetings and starts at 9 a.m. on Jan. 22 with the regular meeting. The TWRC serves as the governing body for the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency. The public is invited to attend.

Among the items on this month's agenda includes TWRA's final recommendations for Tennessee's first elk hunt. The TWRA is requesting the commission's approval for a five-day hunt in October 2009, with a total of five permits to be allocated.

The TWRA issued an RFP (Request For Proposal) at the commission's November meeting for a Special Elk Take Permit to go to a non-profit wildlife conservation organization, but received no proposals. The TWRA is planning to re-issue the RFP in February, and will provide an update on the process.

TWRA has been involved with assessment of natural resource damages and initiation of investigations into long term impact to wildlife resources and habitat as a result of the outer wall of the TVA fly ash disposal area for the Kingston Steam Plant gave way on Dec. 22. Tons of material was released into the Emory River system. This release caused a significant property loss displacing whole neighborhoods, destroying roads, rail lines, gas lines and utilities. Fish, aquatic life and their habitats were destroyed.

A brief description of the release assessment photography and TWRA's initial and long term involvement will be provided.

The TWRA will present a rule amendment to the commission that would establish a first come, first serve process for allocating Special Season County Permits for deer and fall turkey hunts. Over the last several years, these quota hunts have had substantial leftover permits after the drawings. Changing the process to first-come, first-serve will eliminate the need to set up a quota drawing system for these hunts, and provide sportsmen greater flexibility in planning their fall hunts.

A change in a rule concerning migratory bird hunting that would apply only to the Reelfoot Wildlife Management Area is proposed. Specifically, the proposed change would be to the methodology used to register a permanent registered duck blind site. Duck Blind registration at Reelfoot WMA had been by certified mail or in person since the system began in 1986.

Records were maintained by hand and later by computer. Two years ago, the TWRA was approved to go to the REAL system for the agency's registration program. This rule change will codify the current registration procedure under the REAL system.
