Division of Consumer Affairs warns of ads with fraudulent claims

Nashville, - Lose weight, stop smoking, be physically fit! If these are your resolutions for the new year, read on!

The Tennessee Division of Consumer Affairs warns consumers to beware of ads that promise either rapid weight loss without dietary changes or exercise, or so-called miracle cures. Consumers, especially those with existing health problems, should always check with a healthcare professional to ensure products have been validated and wouldn't jeopardize their health.

Working on any level.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

You've got more going on than you realize, but it's all in the details. Now is a good time to pore over them and see if you can pluck out a few nuggets of information that really move you.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

Try to get your friends or family members to see that you're there for them -- even if they can barely see past their own big problems. It may be a good time to help out without being asked.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

It's tempting to try to cover a lot of ground today, but you should instead try to just remain more or less where you are. It's vital that you not get too far ahead of the competition!

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

It's a good time for you to take care of delicate social situations. You may need to try something a bit daring, but your natural diplomacy is perfect for getting people to see the error of their ways.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

Your family members are somewhat harder for you to read today, but that just means you need to take extra time and make sure that you're really getting what they are trying to say.

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

Use your analytical powers to break down your biggest problem into several smaller, more manageable chunks. If that seems too much, you can get help from a wise friend or family member.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

Friends or coworkers want you to help them play hooky, but for some reason you're not having it. Sometimes you've got to be the responsible one, even if it feels like you're being a drag!

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

Little details are everything right now -- and you're the expert! You might have to lean over someone's shoulder in order to help them figure out what they're doing wrong, but it's vital.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

Cash flow issues are it's a great day for detail-oriented work, as you are quite meticulous and ought to be able to deal with the tiniest elements of any given project. You can also notice any flaws that need attention.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

You can make plans for the future that should be rock-solid. You know what you need to know and your people are ready to commit to almost anything you think needs to be done in the near future.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Sometimes it's really hard for you to handle the people in your life, but today it's almost impossible! You've reached your limit and while you're not likely to snap, you should take some time to yourself.

Arrests

Rogers Circle, Lenoir City was charged with driving on revoked 6th offense, financial responsibility and violation of registration.

According to the report, Harp was operating a vehicle on Hwy 321 and was stopped for the passenger not wearing a seatbelt. A check showed Harp to have a revoked license with prior convictions.

Harp also has no proof of insurance or the registration on the vehicle.

The passenger, Shane Allen Wiggins, 37, of West 2nd Avenue, Lenoir City, was found to have a warrant for an attachment out of circuit court. Sgt. Eddie Range, LCPD made the arrests.

Charged

ly 3:21 a.m. Officer F. Donth LCPD responded to the Waffle House in Lenoir City in reference to possible vehicle accident. Upon the officers arrival he observed a red 2001 Chevrolet Cavalier belonging to Adam Douglas Reecer, 28, County Road 255, Athens who was inside the Waffle House.

He allegedly stated he was operating the vehicle on a public roadway and was involved in a motor vehicle accident involving a large curb on Highway 321, causing more than $400 in damage.

Reecer also reportedly stated he had been drinking at Knoxville bar.

After determining Mr. Reecer was the driver, the officer escorted him outside to perform field sobriety tasks to determine if he was driving under the influence. Reecer had an extremely strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person and his speech was very slurred.

The officer reported during the tasks Reecer failed to comply with the instructions and was unable to maintain his balance during the tasks and instructions. He also refused to submit to blood/alcohol testing to determine his level of intoxication.

Adam Reecer was charged with driving under the influence and implied consent.

A passenger, Bobby Lee Baxter, 34, County Road 278, Niota also was inside the Waffle House.

Baxter reportedly was extremely intoxicated and had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage about him.

He also had slurred speech and seemed to not comprehend the officer's questions or commands.

Mr. Baxter also allegedly stated he had been drinking at a bar in Knoxville and did drive to the Waffle House in Lenoir City. However, Officer Donth did not observe the man in control of the vehicle. Bobby Baxter was charged with public intoxication.

Police Beat

Jason Wesley Rogers, 26, of Gateway Circle, Philadelphia, was charged with DUI 1st. According to the report, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD observed a vehicle drifting in the lane of travel and stopped it. The driver, Mr. Rogers, had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and was unsteady on his feet.

Rogers performed poorly on sobriety tasks and registered .05% on the intoximeter at the jail, which is below the legal limit. Officer Bennie Houser, LPD made the arrest.

No License

Jerry Ernesto Munos Garcia, 31, of North A Street, Lenoir City, was charged with driving without a license.

According to the report, Officer James Bowman, LCPD stopped a vehicle for the driver not wearing a seatbelt and found Garcia to have no license. Officer James Bowman, LCPD made the arrest.

Scam artists aren't above making fraudulent health claims to unsuspecting consumers. They know that advancements in technology and new products hitting the market at a rapid pace make recognizing the real deal difficult for consumers. They generally promise miracle drugs or treatments for people who have serious health problems such as arthritis, Alzheimer's, and diabetes or those who want to lose weight or stop smoking.

Consumers should be wary of variations on the following sales pitches:

- * Lose up to 10 pounds in two weeks without changing your diet or exercising!

- * This ancient remedy isn't sold in stores!

- * This product contains a secret ingredient you won't find anywhere else!

- * Hurry, before supplies run out!

- * We'll hold your check for 30 days and return it to you, if you're not 100% satisfied!
