Gearing up for the 2009 LC Christmas Parade

Once again it's time for the Lenoir City Christmas Parade and this year is slated to be the biggest and best ever. The City of Lenoir City Parks and Recreation Department has unveiled a huge campaign for this year's parade to include monetary awards as well as trophy awards to this year's participants. Churches, businesses, clubs, schools and individuals will be par-and stopped it. The driver, Mr. Lemus had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person and performed poorly on sobriety tasks.

Lemus has no license, no social security number and no insurance. The unemployed, unlicensed Lemus was convicted of DUI in 2007 and was charged by the same officer. Upon arriving at the jail Lemus refused to submit to a BAC test.

Police Beat

Dustin Anthony

Schrimsher, 27, of Oak Grove Road, Madisonville, was charged with DUI 1st and violation of implied consent.

According to the report, Sgt. RS Newman LPD observed a vehicle cross over into the opposite lane on Hwy 72 and stopped it. The driver, Mr. Schrimsher, had a blank look on his face and appeared to be on some type of narcotic.

Schrimsher performed very badly on sobriety tasks and refused a blood test.

DAILY EDITION • November 9, 2009 • Page 3

Schrimsher also had his 3-year-old daughter in the back seat of the vehicle. Sgt. RS Newman, LPD made the arrest.

Robert Lance Broyles, 24, of Woodlawn Drive, Lenoir City, was charged with DUI, registration law and financial responsibility.

According to the report, Trooper Teresa Brown THP was dispatched to an accident with injury on Martel Road. Upon arrival Broyles had been transported to Ft. Loudon Hospital.

Broyles had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and stated he was driving and shouldn't have been because he was drunk. Broyles reported he had been to a party and was drinking rum and coke but couldn't remember how much. Trooper Teresa Brown cited Broyles to court due to his injuries.

Rebecca Lorene Thomas, 29, of Patton St., Sweetwater, was charged with driving on revoked.

According to the report, Corporal Pete McGinley LCSO observed a gray vehicle on I75 and the license plate was dangling by one screw.

A check of the tag came back to a different vehicle and was stopped. A check showed Thomas to have a revoked license.

Corporal Pete McGinley LCSO made the arrest.

Joe Michael Robinson, 29, of Carding Machine Road, Loudon, was charged with a warrant for simple possession out of Lenoir City.

Officer James Bowman, LCPD made the arrest.

Larry Lynn Rasar, 50, of Hwy 95, Lenoir City was charged with failure to appear.

Corporal Angi Martin, LCSO made the arrest.

Tracy Lanette Webster, 40, of Hwy 95, Greenback, was charged with failure to appear.

Corporal Angi Martin, LCSO made the arrest.

ticipating in this years parade. The parade will be in Downtown Lenoir City on November 29, 2009 at 3pm.

If you would like to participate please call Jill Strange at 865-986-1223 and get registered today. Registration will be open until Friday afternoon November 27, 2009 at 4pm. Schools participating will be vying for a traveling "School Spirit" banner and award which will give the winning school a whole year to display the win until next year's parade where they will defend their title.

This year's parade will be the most participated in and watched as the Shriners (the guys in the funny hats with the cool toys) will be in full force, along with the bands, floats, ball teams, cheerleaders, businesses, churches, and, of course Santa unloading mounds of candy to parade go-ers. And yes, there will be candy, candy, candy! Local businesses and residents along the parade route are also being encouraged to decorate their places for the holidays. Trophies and awards will be presented following the parade at the grandstand located at A Street.

Prior to the parade and following the parade local carolers will be on corners throughout the parade route to entertain and get ya'll in the mood for Christmas. Santa will be at the First National Bank parking lot with goodies to give out before the parade kicks off.

This year's Grand Marshalls will be the gang from Star 102.1 Mark, Kim and Frank in the morning.

The crowd will be large so come out early and enjoy the 2009 Lenoir City Christmas Parade. If you want to participate in the parade don't forget to call Jill Strange at Lenoir City Parks and Recreation 865-986-1223 and we'll see you there!

Season

ing depend on the county hunted. Anderson, Blount, Campbell, Carter, Claiborne, Cocke, Grainger, Greene, Hamblen, Hancock, Jefferson, Johnson, Loudon, Monroe, Sevier, Unicoi, Union, and Washington are Nov. 7-11. Fentress, Hawkins, Knox, Morgan, Pickett, Polk, Scott, and Sullivan are Nov. 7-20. Only one antlerless deer may be taken during this season, however, any of the three antlered deer not already taken may be harvested during this season as well.

The statewide bag limit for antlered bucks is three. No more than one ant-lered deer may be taken per day. Hunters are allowed the following antlerless bag limit during this segment of muzzleloader season; Unit A -4 antlerless deer; Unit L-3 antlerless deer per day and Unit B-1 antlerless deer.

For the exact boundaries of the different deer units, hunters can refer to the 2009 Tennessee Hunting and Trapping Guide, available where hunting and fishing licenses are sold and at all TWRA offices. The guide can also be viewed on TWRA's Web site at www.tnwildlife.org.

Muzzleloading firearms of .40 caliber minimum plus long bows, compound bows and crossbows are legal hunting equipment for this season.

Resident hunters, ages 16 through 64 must possess in addition to other appropriate licenses, an annual big game license for the equipment used. Lifetime Sportsman license, Junior Hunt/Trap/Fish, Adult Sportsman license and Permanent Senior Citizens license holders are not required to purchase supplemental big game licenses.

In addition to private lands, including public hunting areas, several wildlife management areas (WMAs) will be open to hunters during this muzzleloader season. Hunters need to refer to the 2009 Hunting and Trapping Guide for a listing of these WMAs or go to TWRA's Web site.

Police Beat

Timothy Lynn Huffine, 23, of Pauls Lane, Lenoir City was charged with driving on suspended license.

According to the report, deputy Michael Watkins LCSO pulled up onto an automobile accident at Hwy 444 and Hwy 321. Mr. Huffine drove one of the vehicles involved.

A check showed Huffine to have a suspended license for failure to satisfy citations. Huffine also has no insurance and was cited for financial responsibility. Deputy Michael Watkins, LCSO made the arrest.

Sherry Greenlee, 41, of Amm Hurst Lane, Oak Ridge, was charged with a mitimus.

Officer James Bowman, LCPD made the arrest.

Police Beat

Eric Paul Spicer, 25, of Farr Drive, Knoxville, was charged with DUI and violation of implied consent.

According to the report, Sgt. Jimmey Wiggins, LCSO responded to a call of a wreck on Pine Crest Circle in Lenoir City. Upon arrival the officer found a broken utility pole, utility lines down, and Eric Spicer walking around.

The officer asked Spicer if he was driving and he stated he was. When asked where the vehicle was Spicer reported he drove it to his mother's house.

The officer reported he could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from Spicer's person and Spicer stated he'd had a couple of beers earlier.

Spicer performed poorly on sobriety tasks and refused a BAC test.

Sgt. Jimmey Wiggins, LCSO made the arrest.
