DUI mom crashes into tree, puts children in danger

Deputy Marty Stanley LCSD was dispatched to the area of Hubbard Road and Crooked Oak Drive to assist Deputy Steve Helm on a single vehicle crash. Upon arrival the deputy spoke with and identified the driver as Tiffany Louann Haun. Ms. Haun had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on her person. A check through NCIC revealed her license to be revoked for failure to satisfy a citation in Knox County.

Ms. Haun was driving a red Mazda MX6 with her 3 year old and 2 year old in the vehicle putting the children in imminent danger of serious bodily injury or death due to her driving under the influence and crashing into a tree.

During a vehicle inventory of Ms. Haun's seat a glass pipe commonly used to smoke crack cocaine was found inside a purse. The purse also contained 2 insurance cards with Ms. Haun's name on them. A BAC test taken by blood at the hospital.

Tiffany Louann Haun, 27 of Hudson Street, Sweetwater, was charged with driving under the influence, driving on revoked 3rd offense, possession of drug paraphernalia and aggravated child endangerment x2. Deputy Marty Stanley, LCSD made the arrest.

Backpack

According to reports Deputy Shane Ezell, LCSD was dispatched to Red Grouse Drive, Lenoir City on a burglary of a vehicle. Mr. Robert Mullins advised he locked his truck on Tuesday evening when he came home from work. Around 12:30 a.m. his wife went to the truck and got a set of keys from it. She forgot to lock the truck back and turn the alarm on.

Mr. Mullins advised

he returned to the truck the next morning around 4:30 a.m. and found a green backpack missing from the front seat. There were no signs of forced entry.

The backpack contained a photo ID from the Department of Energy, two Kershaw knives, a Apple iPod and several keys. A few items from the back pack were found in the roadway in front of the residence.

Police Beat

Stephanie Lynn Bledsoe, 25, Hamilton Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged with first offense DUI Tuesday.

According to reports, Hamilton was involved in a wreck with injury at West Hills Drive and Hamilton Avenue and upon arrival of police she was found to be unsteady on her feet with slurred speech.

Bledsoe reportedly also performed poorly on field sobriety tasks, and consented to a blood alcohol test.

Officer Mike Hodges, LCPD, made the arrest.

Teresa Jane Hardin, 39, Vale Street, Loudon, was charged with possession of schedule II and failure to appear Tuesday.

Records indicate

Deputy McKenzie Williams, LCSD, arrested Hardin at the Knox County jail on the warrants.

Latonda Shaneen Hughes, 28, Frances Drive, Lenoir City was charged with failure to appear Tuesday.

Deputy John Maples, LCSD, made the arrest.

Courtney Darlene Brown, 23, of Donelson Road, Philadelphia, was charged with a mittimus out of Lenoir City.

Officer B. Gentry LCPD made the arrest.

Heilman

ty Brad Rayfield, LCSD was dispatched to Heilman's residence after his father summoned help due to his son being out of control.

The lawman reported

he arrived to find the elder man standing outside and he advised his son "Chad" had been drinking and taking prescription pills all day and had been threatening him all day.

The deputy further noted Heilman then came outside and upon seeing him there became very belligerent. Heilman started cussing his father and told him he was going to "stomp" him for calling the police.

The victim reported he was afraid of the younger man when he drinks alcohol because he is very violent.

Records indicate due to the circumstances of further violence, Heilman was placed under arrest for domestic violence and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

While en route to the jail, Heilman reportedly became very violent and kicked and beat the inside of the cruiser. He reportedly also told the officer he wasn't sure if he would fight officers or not when and checked the tag information and found the driver was wanted for failure to appear on 9th driving on revoked. After being stopped Littleton was found to indeed have a revoked license and was taken into custody. At the jail Littleton was found to have a bag of a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana in his sock.

Richard Lynn Littleton, 33, of Sweeten Road, Lenoir City, was charged with failure to appear 9th revoked, driving on revoked 10th offense and introduction of drugs into a penal facility. Deputy Chris Bowen and Deputy Lonnie Gaut, LCSD made the arrest.

Fraud

sponded to Chatuga Way, Loudon to investigate a report of fraud. The victim, Ms. Erdine Corwin stated she received a call stating her grandson was in jail in Canada and needed $3000 sent via Western Union to make bond and to please not call his family or they would be upset and mad.

Someone else got on the phone using her grandson's name. She said he sounded just like her grandson and he knew all the right names.

Corwin advised they called back sixteen days later and said her grandson needed money for an attorney. She sent $2626 to them through Western Union.

Corwin further reported in trying to call back, the phone is just on an answering machine. The name given to her to call was Jason Newsted.

The loss was valued at $5668.

The investigation is on going.
