January revenues show continued weakness in consumer confidence

Nashville, - Overall January revenues were $936.4 million, which is $114.3 less than the state budgeted, reflecting dismal holiday retail sales for Tennessee as well as continued weakness in consumer confidence.

"January is the sixth consecutive month this fiscal year in which sales taxes and corporate income taxes have recorded negative growth over a year ago." Finance and Administration Commissioner Dave Goetz said. "January is also historic in that it represents the eleventh negative growth month in sales tax collections out of the last thirteen months, starting with January 2008.

"We will continue to be

Police beat

Timothy S. Montgomery Jr. 26, Oakwood Drive, Lenoir City was charged with Driving on suspended license.

According to reports, on Saturday at 9:00pm Deputy Brad Rayfield LCSD was on routine patrol and observed a silver 1990 Ford Taurus with expired tags on McGee Boulevard. The officer stopped the vehicle on Kelly Lane and talked with the driver, Timothy Montgomery. He advised his license was suspended.

A check through NCIC revealed Mr. Montgomery's license was suspended for failure to satisfy a citation. Loudon County Jail also had an active warrant for failure to appear- possession of drug paraphernalia.

Ryan E. McClain Jr. 18, Gateway Circle, Philadelphia was charged with driving on suspended license.

According to reports on Sunday at approximately 1:50am Officer Bennie Houser LPD observed a white 1994 Pontiac run a stop sign at I-75 southbound exit at Highway 72.

The driver was identified as Ryan McClain. When asked to see his license, registration, and proof of insurance, Mr. McClain stated he could not show proof of insurance. After running McClain's license through the E911 center the status came back suspended for failure to provide financial responsibility. He was given a warning for running the stop sign.

Revenues

diligent in monitoring our spending in order to end the fiscal year with a balanced budget as required by the state's constitution," Goetz said.

On an accrual basis, January is the sixth month in the 2008-2009 fiscal year.

The general fund was under collected by $102.7 million and the four other funds were under collected by $11.6 million.

Sales tax collections were $68.4 million less than the estimate for January. The January growth rate was negative 6.87%. For six months revenues are under collected by $280.9 million. The year-to-date growth rate for six months was negative 5.72 %.

Franchise and excise taxes combined were $26.6 million below the budgeted estimate of $150.3 million. For six months revenues are under collected by $162.3 million.

Gasoline and motor fuel collections for January decreased by 11.2 % and were $8.9 below the budgeted estimate of $72.2 million. For six months revenues are under collected by $33.7 million.

Tobacco tax collections were $3.3 million below the budgeted estimate of $24.8 million, and for six months they are $5.7 million under the budgeted estimate.

Year-to-date collections for six months were $522.1 million less than the budgeted estimate. The general fund was under collected by $482.1 million and the four other funds were under collected by $40.0 million. The budgeted revenue estimates for 2008-2009 are based on the State Funding Board's consensus recommendation adopted by the second session of the 105th General Assembly in May of 2008.

Trailer

West, Greenback stated during the first week in December a red truck pulled up the drive of her residence and a white male knocked on her front door. He asked if he could borrow the horse trailer for another man, so he could pick up a horse for him. The other man has borrowed the trailer in the past and Mrs. Seal gave her permission.

Seal advised there were two other men in the truck and she watched them go into the lot and hook to the trailer and leave. She did not recognize the men.

At a later date Seal said she discovered the man who had borrowed the trailer in the past did not tell the two men to get the trailer and to this date the trailer has not been returned.

The trailer is described as a 12 ft. white dual axle double horse trailer, valued at $1500.

DAV

Wright advised the car was still on the Interstate on Tuesday and when went back on Wednesday the car was gone.

Wright further advised she contacted Spurgeons to see when they picked it up and they advised they did not get it. She contacted THP and all wrecker services in Loudon County and no one had the car.

The officer noted Wright took the vehicle since it did advised it is unknown who not run.
