Smith

After telling Smith he was under arrest for the warrants from Hamblen County Smith tried to get away from Deputy Patterson and Smith had to be taken down to the floor by Patterson and Deputy Kevin Parks.

After resisting for a while officers got Smith into custody and put him in the patrol car.

While searching Smith Deputy Patterson found a small plastic bottle that contained a small amount of marijuana, an Adderall pill, a schedule II narcotic, and two Lortab pills, a schedule III narcotic.

Nathan Alan Smith, 28, of Jefferson Avenue, Madisonville, was charged with resisting arrest, simple possession of marijuana, possession of schedule II narcotic and possession of schedule III narcotic. Deputy Mickey Patterson, LCSO made the arrest.

Zigenfuss

The officer found the vehicle and the subject on Blue Springs Road about three miles into Roane County. The vehicle was on fire and Edgar Jason Zigenfuss stated he was the driver and when asked about the accident Zigenfuss told the deputy he was involved in one somewhere.

Edgar was very unsteady on his feet and had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person. When asked how many he had to drink Zigenfuss reported three and was given several sobriety tasks, which he performed poorly on.

A check of his license was run and it was discovered revoked for DUI with one prior revoked conviction and two prior DUI's.

Edgar Jason Zigenfuss,

30, of Blue Springs Road, Sweetwater, was charged with DUI 3rd, leaving the scene of an accident and driving on revoked license 2nd. Corporal Chad Estes, LCSO made the arrest.

Fraud

has been using his identity. He applied for a position at Radio Shack and during their background check they discovered someone had been using his identity in West Tennessee.

Mr. Belvin advised he filed a fraud report with the credit bureaus and is waiting for the information to arrive. According to Mr. Blevin, he has never applied for credit and is unsure how someone may have gotten his information.
