From DUI to burglary; all in a day's work

A Loudon man allegedly under the influence of drugs was taken into custody after he drove his vehicle into a ditch and got stuck getting out. When police saw him reportedly stagger out of his vehicle and stopped to check him out, stolen pills bottles were among items found in the vehicle and burglary charges were filed later in the day.

Joe Michael Robison, 29, Maremont Parkway, Loudon was charged with DUI 2nd (drugs), possession of schedule VI and possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to reports, on Sunday morning at around 7:00 a.m., Sgt. R.S. Newman, LPD observed a white 2000 Cadillac in a ditch they're saying things you disagree with strongly! It's a good time to take in new input from all players.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

You need to get out there and explore more of your world -- and you've got just the right kind of energy for it! See if you can cajole a friend or family member into joining you for the ride.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

You get some bad or so-so news late in the day, but it shouldn't be catastrophic. More likely, it's just a setback that should only hold you up for a bit if you can avoid crippling yourself with disappointment.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

You feel completely prepared for today's big step -- even if you hadn't really seen it coming! You may need to help a friend or loved one come to terms with it, but that's what you're best at!

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

You may have quite a few requests for assistance or for tasks to do for others, but you need to put your own needs first today. That could mean anything from taking the day off to just sneaking a few games of solitaire.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

Your big ideas may be flying over everyone's heads, but they can tell you're on to something thanks to the fire in your eyes. Keep pushing ahead with your big plan and they'll catch up later.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

You're a bit more tied down than usual today thanks to an unusual family obligation, but it doesn't breed much resentment. In fact, you could turn it around into something quite liberating!

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

You're filled with potent energy that needs to be expressed -- and it's easy to find others to chat with or get serious with if the situation demands it. You may learn a lot more than you thought you could.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Let your coworkers or family drive the events of the day -- you're just along for the ride! You may be worn out from recent victories or just needing some down time in between schemes.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Your good mood is quite infectious today, so start laughing and get others to do the same! Even if things seem dire at home or at work, you can lighten it all up a bit just by being who you are.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

You need even more structure than usual -- and so do those around you. Fortunately, you can provide it for all, as long as they're willing to go along with your way of doing things. If not, shape them up first!

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

People aren't naturally self-organizing today -- so you need to step in and give them some form! It's not as hard as it may appear and if you're willing to be the center of attention, it goes pretty well for you.

Police Beat

Chase L. Coleman 24, Calloway Circle, Lenoir City was charged with domestic assault.

According to the report, early Saturday morning at approximately 5:45 a.m. Officer F. Donth, LCPD responded to an apartment on Kelly Lane regarding a domestic assault in progress. The call was placed by the victim's sister.

She reportedly stated her sister was being chased and beaten by her boyfriend Chase Coleman.

Upon arrival and further investigation it was discovered the pair had been out partying and just returned home. Coleman allegedly kicked the door open and a heated argument began.

The woman reportedly went upstairs to remove herself from the situation. Mr. Coleman followed her upstairs, continued to argue and subsequently pushed her into the closet wall and slapped her.

Robison

on Highway 72 at Carding Machine Road. The vehicle attempted to pull out of the ditch, but became stuck in the mud instead.

The driver, identified as Joe Michael Robison, exited the vehicle and was unsteady on his feet and appeared to be under the influence of some type of narcotic. His eyes were extremely blood shot and he appeared confused.

NCIC showed him to have a prior DUI in 2004.

The officer patted Robison down for weapons and felt a syringe in his front pocket. He retrieved the syringe and a small amount of marijuana from his front pocket.

Robison was wearing sandals and had what appeared to be tracks from drug use on his left foot.

Mr. Robison was cuffed and placed in the back of the cruiser. A search of his vehicle turned up two empty pill bottles belonging to two other individuals. The pill bottles were possibly taken in a burglary that occurred the day before in the city of Loudon.

Mr. Robison was taken to Loudon Police Department to speak with an investigator.

According to another report, Robison was arrested at the Loudon Police Department Sunday at 2:00 p.m. by Sgt. Brian Jenkins, LPD on charges of aggravated burglary.

The report states on Saturday at around 1:00 p.m. Joe Robison, with intent to commit theft, broke into a house on Ferry Street in Loudon. He reportedly kicked in the back door of the residence and entered the home taking jewelry and pills that did not belong to him. This was done without the consent or knowledge of the owner.

Most of the property was recovered at a residence on Carding Machine Road in Loudon.

had 11 schools in the team competition. Finishing second to Bledsoe County was Siegel and third was Meigs County. The high school division had Bledsoe County coming in second and Siegel finishing third.

Alberta Guitierrez from Clarksville's Northwest High School had the honor of posting the top score by a female participant. Bledsoe County High's Austin Boynton had the highest overall male score in leading his team to a second place finish in the High School Division.

Medals were presented to the top five female and male finishers in each division. In the elementary school division, Lyndsey James from Hickman was the winner. Caroline Love (Siegel) was second followed by Allison Hyde and Jenny Harris (both from Meigs County), and Justice Armstrong (Warren County).

Bledsoe County had three of the top five male scorers in the elementary division. John Mark Nale was first while teammates Dustin Boynton and Tyler Young were third and fourth. Coleman Elder (Meigs County) was second and Dawson Lefebvre (Van Buren County) was fifth.

Lawrenceburg's E.O. Coffman took the top two spots for middle school females with Haley Turrentine and Hannah Crews posting first and second place finishes. Hannah Maynard (Van Buren County) was third with Katie Hill and Kailee Gerzema (Stone Memorial) rounding out the top five.

Holden Boynton (Bledsoe County) was the top middle school male shooter. Cory Jarvis and Dillon Crisp (both from Meigs County) followed with Cody Lowery (E.O. Coffman) fourth and Eli Arwood (Sweetwater) fifth.

Among the high school female shooters, coming in second behind Northwest's Gutierrez were Amy Bleasdale, Cheyenne Hutson (both from Van Buren), Laney Humphrey (Siegel), and Abby Barlow (Warren County).

Kane Maynard (Van Buren) was second by Austin Boynton among the high school male shooters. Michael Smith and Will Swafford (Bledsoe County) placed third and fourth and Kyle Pelham (Warren County), last year's overall and middle school winner, placed fifth in his first year of high school competition.

Defending high school champion Northwest High did not complete its rounds as the threat of inclement weather in the Clarksville area forced the team to leave before it completed its flights.

Each student shot 30 arrows, 15 from 10 meters and 15 from 15 meters with a maximum score of 300. The top team and top five individuals (female and male) in each division automatically receive a bid to compete in the 2009 National NASP Tournament to be held May 8-9 at Louisville, Ky.

Tennessee began NASP in late 2004 with 12 pilot schools participating in the program. More than 100 schools now participate in the program. NASP is a 2-8 week curriculum taught during school that teaches International style target archery.

served a green 1993 Ford Crown Victoria traveling west on Pond Creek Road. The vehicle crossed the center line several times.

The officer stopped the vehicle for suspicions of driving under the influence. The driver was identified as Samuel Maples.

Mr. Maples was patted down for officer's safety and an unidentifiable object was found in his jacket.

Deputy Jenkins reported he got verbal consent to remove the object, which was a small container with the markings of one touch ultra test strips. Inside the container was three round blue pills with markings of Dan 5620/10.

Mr. Maples advised he did not have a prescription for the pills because he found them.

On search of the vehicle one open container of an alcoholic beverage was found in the front passenger side floor board and two unopened alcoholic beverages was found in the back. Mr. Maples was also issued several citations for the alcohol.

Police Beat

Joseph N. Byrd, 23, Sunset Avenue, Knoxville was charged with assault by domestic violence.

According to the report, Thursday afternoon at approximately 3:45 p.m. Officer Darrell Butler, LCPD was dispatched to Ruby Tuesday's on a fight call between a male and female. The vehicle was located at the Interstate Shell.

The female's right eye was red and reportedly turning black. She advised Joseph Byrd hit her in the eye.

Mr. Byrd was located inside the Shell Station and placed under arrest.

Bass

A Philadelphia woman was jailed after she reportedly cut her mother with a bottle during a struggle over beer.

Patricia Marie Bass, 50, McCrary Street, Philadelphia was charged with domestic assault.

According to reports, on Friday at 4:24 p.m. Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSO was dispatched to McCrary Street on a past physical domestic. While en route the officer was advised the daughter had cut the 72 year old mother's hand with a beer bottle while in a brief struggle.

Upon arrival the officer observed the daughter, Patricia Bass trying to leave the residence in a vehicle. She reported stated she had been in a fight with her 72 year old mother.

Deputy Rayfield asked Ms. Bass if there was any physical contact between the two and she said no.

The mother was very distraught, had trouble breathing and was on oxygen. She reportedly advised she was trying to put bottled beer into a small refrigerator in her own bedroom when her daughter Patricia, jumped at the beer she had in her hand, shoving her with her body, and pulling and jerking the beer from her left hand causing a cut at the base of her thumb. She refused

Aguiler-Hernandez

According to the report, on Sunday at approximately 11:15 p.m. Officer Bennie Houser, LPD observed a red 1996 Ford Probe traveling south on Highway 11 in the northbound lane, driving toward his patrol unit. The vehicle drifted back into the southbound lane of traffic.

The officer turned around and got behind the vehicle. It reportedly crossed the center line numerous times.

Officer Houser stopped the vehicle on Highway 11 in front of Biven's Body Shop and advised the driver, identified as Mr. Aguiler-Hernandez, why he had stopped him.

Mr. Aguiler-Hernandez reportedly stated he was on his cell phone. He had a strong odor of an intoxicant about his person.

After running Aguiler-Hernandez's name and date of birth through the E911 Center there was no status for a drivers license.

Upon exiting the vehicle Mr. Aguiler-Hernandez allegedly was very unsteady and stated he drank four beers at a friend's house. He performed poorly on field sobriety tasks and was read the implied consent and refused.
