They should have had a V8!

Aaron Joseph Steagel 19, Old Holderford Road, Kingston was charged with underage possession / consumption of alcohol.

According to records, Deputy Michael Watkins, LCSO was on patrol in the Muddy Creek Road area and when he approached Virtue Road he noticed a large amount of water in the roadway and stopped. At that time he saw headlights come on in the parking lot of the church and a vehicle leaving.

Due to the recent break ins in the area the officer attempted to stop the vehicle at Virtue Road and Misty Ridge Drive.

It continued on to a residence on Misty Ridge Drive before stopping.

The driver, Mr. Aaron Joseph Steagel allegedly seemed very nervous. Deputy Watkins deployed K9 Denero. He alerted to the passenger door of the vehicle.

A search found two 40 ounce Hurricane malt liquors, one 12 pack of Natural Ice beer, three Mike's Hard Lemonade, one almost empty Captain Morgan's rum and one open Samuel Adams beer.

Mr. Steagel was arrested for underage
