Alert

the letter will be a check usually for the amount of $2,925.00. The company then wants the person to cash the check and pay themselves $400. The letter also states that $50 will be used for purchases at Wal-Mart and JC Penney's. The company then wants the employee to MONEY-BACK THE REST OF THE MONEY BACK. The check that is issued is under a fraudulent account and is worthless even though it looks authentic. You will then be responsible for the bad check. If you get a letter or a check similar to this DO NOT CASH THE CHECK. Instead call the Loudon County Sheriff's Office. This is an ongoing fraud and has occurred in other counties.

way to take a report of a vehicle fire. Mr. Lupasco Stanislaw, Shady Crest Lane, Knoxville, stated he just parked his 1993 Mercedes in the parking lot at work and about ten minutes later he noticed smoke coming from it.

Stanislaw reported when he went to see what was causing the smoke he discovered his car was on fire and he got a water hose and a fire extinguisher to put it out.

Records indicate there was damage to the interior and exterior due to the fire that appeared to have started in the passenger front seat area.

The value of the loss was unknown at the time of the report.

on an emergency and could not deposit it herself.

It was learned that Erika Bryan was living at Daleyohski Lane in Loudon. Ms. Bryan is an adult but was living in a foster home. Ms. Bryan left with the cash and also took a 14 year old juvenile with her.

Upon further investigation, Corporal Pete McGinley and Deputy Michael Watkins were able to determine that the subjects had taken a cab to Knoxville to get on the bus at Greyhound Bus Station to travel to Memphis. Corporal McGinley and Deputy Watkins immediately notified the Memphis Police. Due to the quick response and follow up by the deputies, both subjects were apprehended by Memphis Police. Also, the $13,000 in cash was recovered. Ms. Bryan was charged with theft over $10,000. The juvenile was placed in custody. Lt. Teresa Smith and Corrections Officer McKenzie Williams traveled to Memphis on April 30th and brought the two subjects back along with the victim's money.
