Police Beat

John David Carver, 21, Garden Drive, Knoxville was charged with DUI by alcohol and / or drugs.

According to reports, while on routine patrol Tuesday Deputy C. McConkey, LCSO was traveling east on Highway 11 when he observed a black 1998 Jeep Cherokee cross the double center line twice, then the fog line before going halfway into the oncoming traffic lane once.

The vehicle was pulled over on Highway 11 at Muddy Creek Road on suspicion of DUI. A very strong odor of an alcoholic beverage came from inside the vehicle.

The driver, John David Carver, reportedly had red bloodshot eyes and slurred speech.

Mr. Carver was asked to do several field sobriety tasks and performed poorly on all tasks given. He was read the Tennessee implied consent law and agreed to submit to a blood / alcohol test.

Carver was transported to the Loudon County Jail from Fort

Loudoun ER.

John S. Jaynes, 49, Steekee School Road, Loudon, was charged with driving on revoked license 2nd offense.

According to records, Deputy Jason Goddard, LCSO was dispatched to Steekee School Road on a wreck with no injury in front of the school. Upon arrival, the officer spoke to a woman who stated she was traveling on Steekee School Road, in front of the school and was looking for a parking spot when a white Honda Accord rear-ended her vehicle.

The driver of the Honda was identified as John Jaynes.

Deputy Goddard asked for both drivers license's, insurance and registrations so he could do a crash report. Mr. Jaynes reportedly stated he did not have a drivers license and couldn't provide proof of insurance.

Jaynes advised his license are revoked for DUI. The officer ran Jaynes's name and date of birth and it indeed, came revoked for DUI.

Daniel Erick Loudermilk, 24, Dogwood Lane, Loudon was charged with driving on revoked license.

According to the report, Officer Brandon DeBoer, LPD observed a red Jeep fail to stop at the stop sign at Rayder Drive and High Street in Loudon. Officer DeBoer conducted a traffic stop on the Jeep and identified the driver as Daniel Loudermilk.

Mr. Loudermilk advised his drivers license are revoked in Tennessee for DUI.

Loudermilk was arrested for driving on revoked and cited for failure to obey a traffic control device.

Owrutzky

9815 Fairview Road, Lenoir City.

During the search of the residence officers discovered approximately 1 1/4 pounds of a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana, much of the substance was bagged in individual baggies ranging in weights from 15 grams to one ounce, that were located in Owrutzky's bedroom. Also in the bedroom were scales, baggies and other paraphernalia used to package marijuana for resale.

Located in a barn at the residence in a concealed underground room, were 17 marijuana plants growing under two large grow lights and a CO2 gas system. The lights and gas system were both set on timers. Also found in the barn were two papers bags containing clippings and five other plants that had been discarded. During an interview Mr. Owrutzky admitted to selling and growing marijuana.

Davila

was charged with DUI 3rd offense and driving on revoked license.

According to reports, Thursday at approximately 11:23 p.m., Lt. David Flynn, LCPD received a reckless driver call on Grand Street. Upon arrival at the scene the officer observed a white GMC Sonoma traveling north on Grand Street.

The driver, Mr. Davila, was not wearing a seat belt and was pulled over.

Davila had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage about his breath and body and slurred speech. He was unsteady on his feet and had slowed motor skills. According to Lt. Flynn, Mr. Davila staggered when he walked and bumped into objects. Roberto Serrano Davila was taken to the Loudon County Jail for a breathalyzer test. He tried three times and couldn't provide a sufficient sample.

Davila's license was entered into NCIC/TCIC and found to be revoked for DUI on March 11, 2009.

Police Beat

Jose Alfredo Gil-Ortiz, 23, Mulberry Street, Loudon, was charged with public intoxication.

According to records, Sgt. R.S. Newman, LPD observed a man identified as Jose Alfredo Gil-Ortiz standing in front of the Family Dollar on Mulberry Street who was unsteady on his feet and smelled of beer.

Mr. Gil-Ortiz appeared to have been in a fight or some type of altercation. He was unable to care for himself and was deemed a danger to others if left in public.
